

Contents

Introduction	ix
1 Interacting with Fictions
GERO TÖGL Remediating Theatre: From Grand Theft Auto to The Ruby Town Oracle	21
MONIKA BREGOVIĆ Transforming Reality in the Magic Mirror of Fiction: From Boal to SIGNA	39
PETRA MARTINA BAUMANN Fan Fiction: A Threefold Interaction with Fiction and the Online Community	53

2 Indicating Realities

LOUISA SÖLLNER

Touching History: Photography and the 'Coming Alive' of the Image in María Magdalena Campos-Pons's Installation Umbilical Cord and Ana Menéndez's Novel Loving Che 69

OLGA SMITH

Pierre Huyghe's Travels with Arthur Gordon Pym 85

UTE GRÖBEL

'short-sleeping, quick-eating and all that stuff' – Kathrin Röggla's Novel we never sleep and 'Deconstructive Documentarism' 101

STEFANIE HEINE

Between Reality and the Real. A Reading of the Term 'Reality' in Jacques Lacan and Virginia Woolf 117

3 Realisations of Fictions

MARY KUHN

Playing the Surface: Fiction as Socially Transformative Reality in E.D.E.N. Southworth's The Hidden Hand 145

IRINA SCHULZKI

Plunging into Fan Fiction: Transgression versus Transcendence in Lost in Austen 161

LINDSAY PALMER

Confession as Construction: The Celebrity Body as Person and Persona on 'Reality' TV 185

SNEŽANA KALINIĆ

Transgressing Reality and Embodying Fiction through Self-Transformation in The Reincarnation of Saint Orlan 197