

Contents

| | | |
|--------|--|----|
| 1. | Introduction..... | 1 |
| 1.1. | Aims and Topics | 1 |
| 1.2. | The Textual Basis..... | 2 |
| 1.3. | Structure and Main Concerns..... | 6 |
| 2. | The Bildungsroman and the Comic: Groundwork and Perspectives .. | 9 |
| 2.1. | The Bildungsroman : A Brief History | 9 |
| 2.1.1. | European Genre – German Influence | 9 |
| 2.1.2. | The Negative Bildungsroman | 13 |
| 2.1.3. | The Bildungsroman in the Early Twentieth Century..... | 15 |
| 2.1.4. | Women’s Bildungsroman | 16 |
| 2.1.5. | A Gap to Bridge? Comic Elements in the Bildungsroman .. | 24 |
| 2.2. | Comic Effects | 27 |
| 2.2.1. | Terminology of the Comic | 27 |
| 2.2.2. | Traditional Reservations Against the Comic | 28 |
| 2.2.3. | Two Crucial Phenomena: Superiority and Incongruity | 33 |
| 2.2.4. | Bergson, his Critics and his Echoes | 35 |
| 2.2.5. | Sociological Approaches | 37 |
| 2.2.6. | Release / Relief Theory: A Word on Freud..... | 38 |
| 2.3. | Women’s Comic and Feminist Humour | 39 |
| 2.3.1. | The “Female Voice” | 39 |
| 2.3.2. | The Comic: “Why make it gender-specific?” | 41 |
| 2.3.3. | Critical Opinions of Women’s Capacity as Humorists..... | 44 |
| 2.3.4. | Women’s Comic Productions: Attempts at Description.. | 45 |
| 2.3.5. | Connections and Perspectives for Further Analysis | 48 |

| | | |
|--------|--|-----|
| 3. | The Women Protagonists: Against Disorientation | 49 |
| 3.1. | Introduction: Heroines and Humorists | 49 |
| 3.2. | A Summer Bird-Cage | 51 |
| 3.2.1. | Defying Disorientation..... | 51 |
| 3.2.2. | Parties, Greed, Materialism | 55 |
| 3.3. | The Virgin in the Garden | 60 |
| 3.4. | The Mind-Body Problem | 65 |
| 3.4.1. | Renee Feuer as Relational Character | 65 |
| 3.4.2. | The Problem of Ageing | 69 |
| 3.5. | The Edible Woman | 70 |
| 3.6. | Secondary Women Characters | 74 |
| 3.6.1. | Mothers..... | 74 |
| 3.6.2. | Sisters and Other Women Relations..... | 77 |
| 3.6.3. | Friends and Colleagues..... | 82 |
| 4. | Ridiculing the Threat: Representing Men | 87 |
| 4.1. | Comic Male Characters | 87 |
| 4.2. | The Neurotic and the Absent: A Summer Birdcage | 88 |
| 4.2.1. | The Absent Knight: Francis | 88 |
| 4.2.2. | Prince Charming into Frog: Tony..... | 91 |
| 4.2.3. | Stephen Halifax: Fool, Neurotic, or Madman?..... | 91 |
| 4.2.4. | Finding Superman? John Connell..... | 95 |
| 4.3. | A.S. Byatt's Helpless Characters..... | 97 |
| 4.3.1. | The Exposition of The Virgin in the Garden | 97 |
| 4.3.2. | Daniel Orton: A Juggernaut? | 99 |
| 4.3.3. | Alexander Wedderburn: Artist, Poet, Fugitive..... | 103 |
| 4.4. | Geniuses and Caricatures: The Mind-Body Problem | 110 |
| 4.4.1. | A Kind of Prologue: Renee's Typology of Men | 110 |

| | | |
|--------|---|-----|
| 4.4.2. | Noam Himmel: How to Live with a Genius | 112 |
| 4.5. | The Edible Woman : Hunters and Gatherers | 116 |
| 4.5.1. | The Hunter: Peter Wollander | 117 |
| 4.5.2. | Duncan and His Flatmates – Dysfunctional Escapism.... | 122 |
| 4.5.3. | Leonard Slank: From Aggression to Regression..... | 126 |
| 5. | Making Sense of Endings | 131 |
| 5.1. | A Woman Protagonist’s Final Potential | 131 |
| 5.2. | A Summer Bird-Cage | 132 |
| 5.3. | The Edible Woman : The Extended Symbol | 140 |
| 5.4. | The Virgin in the Garden : Refusal of Closure..... | 147 |
| 5.5. | The Mind-Body Problem : “Menschlichkeit” [sic] as Solution | 149 |
| 5.6. | Resolution – Recognition – Resignation? | 152 |
| 6. | Comic Effects and Their Consequences..... | 159 |
| 6.1. | Mocking in Defence: The Representation of Men Protagonists | 159 |
| 6.2. | Femininity or Freedom? | 164 |
| 6.3. | The Problem of Critical Distance: Family and Marriage..... | 166 |
| 7. | Conclusion | 169 |
| 8. | Works Cited..... | 175 |
| 8.1. | Primary Sources | 175 |
| 8.2. | Secondary Sources | 177 |
| 9. | Index..... | 195 |