

Contents

List of tables	ix
List of figures	x
Notes on contributors	xi
Preface	xv
1 Past masters: in search of the artisan in European history Geoffrey Crossick	1
2 Artisans and urban politics in seventeenth-century Germany Christopher R. Friedrichs	41
3 Cultural analysis and early modern artisans James R. Farr	56
4 'Broken all in pieces': artisans and the regulation of workmanship in early modern London Michael Berlin	75
5 The aristocratic hôtel and its artisans in eighteenth- century Paris: the market ruled by court society Natacha Coquery	92
6 Craftsmen and revolution in Bordeaux Josette Pontet	116
7 Craftsmen in the political and symbolic order: the case of eighteenth-century Malmö Lars Edgren	131
8 Women and the craft guilds in eighteenth-century Nantes Elizabeth Musgrave	151
9 Worlds of mobility: migration patterns of Viennese artisans in the eighteenth century Josef Ehmer	172
10 Artisans in Hungarian towns on the eve of industrialization Vera Bácskai	200
11 Urban renovation and changes in artisans' activities: the Parisian fabrique in the Arts et Métiers quarter during the Second Empire Florence Bourillon	218

12	Artisans and the labour market in Dutch provincial capitals around 1900 Pim Kooij	239
	Index	257