

Contents

List of illustrations	vi
Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction	1
PART I From Company to Crown, 1757–1857
1 The British East India Company	4
2 Oriental Despotisms and Political Economies	24
3 Orientalism: The East as a Career	49
4 Laws and Order: The Cases of Thuggee and Sati	67
PART II The Opening of the Suez Canal
5 The “Master Builder” of the Canal: Ferdinand de Lesseps	100
6 Spectacular Suez: The Gala Opening of the Canal, 1869	113
7 The Battlefield of the Future: The Canal and its Consequences	121
8 The Occupation of Egypt: The Arabi Uprising, 1881–1882	138
PART III The Great Game
9 The Game: The Indian Rebellion of 1857–1858	166
10 The Game: The Afghan Wars	184
11 The Game and its Rules: Governing the Subcontinent	205
12 The Game Board: Getting To and Around India	222
PART IV The Scramble for Africa
13 From Berlin to Fashoda: 1885–1898	244
14 The Mission and its Missionaries	262
15 The Administrators: Lugard and Rhodes	278
16 Crises of Empire-Making: Khartoum, South Africa, and the Congo	299
PART V Victoria
17 The Crystal Palace and The Great Exhibition of 1851	332
18 In the Streets: Reforming the Rabble	340
19 “Moral Musculature”: Schoolboys and Boy Scouts	352
20 “Jingoes” vs “Little Englanders”: The Debate over Empire	361
21 From Ingénue to Empress: The Reign of Queen Victoria	388
Glossary	401
Index	405