

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Foreword	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
1 German-Speaking Jesuit Missionaries in the American Southwest: Global Perspectives of a Local Phenomenon in the Eighteenth Century—An Introduction	1
2 Major German Jesuit Writers and Their Biographies: A Global History from Individual Perspectives	21
3 Father Eusebio Kino—The Pioneer: Discovery, Encounters, and the Establishment of the Kino Missionary Network	53
4 Joseph Stoecklein’s Welt-Bott : A Jesuit’s Collection of Global Missionary Reports for a German Audience	73
5 An Encyclopedic Approach to the Early History of Sonora: The Pimería Alta as Seen by Ignaz Pfefferkorn, a German Scientist Missionary and Anthropologist in the New World	85
6 Joseph Och’s Travel Reports: An Autobiographical Perspective	131
7 The Personal Perspective: Letters by the Swiss Jesuit Philipp Segesser, a Missionary’s Correspondence with His Family	165
Conclusion	199
Bibliography	203
Index	213