

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of tables	viii
List of contributors	ix
Acknowledgement	xiii
1 Globalisation, the crisis and the state: introduction John H. Farrar and David G. Mayes	1
PART I INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES
2 Modernising the state: the New Zealand experience Margaret Wilson	21
3 Rebuilding state systems post-GFC: the South African case Laurence Boulle	42
4 Chinese multinationals and the state: an institutional perspective Xiaohua Yang and Clyde D. Stoltenberg	72
5 The EU and the member states: Germany and supranationalism in times of financial crisis Jürgen Bröhmer	94
PART II COMMERCIAL PERSPECTIVES
6 Corporatisation in Australia: a Queensland perspective Tahnee Booth and Adrian Noon	117
7 Putting 'why' before 'how': evaluating the rationales for partial privatisation of state-owned enterprises in New Zealand Chye-Ching Huang, Susan Watson and Jenny Chen	140
8 Public project procurement and the case for public-private partnerships Michael Regan	172

9	Rethinking the state through the lens of regulatory governance Graeme A. Hodge	197
10	Developments in central banking after the GFC: central banks, the state, globalisation and the GFC Louise Parsons	218
11	The euro crisis David G. Mayes	243
12	The governance and regulation of sovereign wealth funds and foreign exchange reserves in a post-GFC world Mohamed Ariff and John H. Farrar	272
	Index	295