

| CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction	1
1 The Disruption of the Global and the Local	9
2 Speaking Beyond Postcoloniality: The Historical Construction of Chinese and Taiwanese Identity	29
3 Theorizing Ambivalence: Ambivalent Formations in Ang Lee's Transnational Films and Their Audiences	41
4 The Burden of Becoming a Chinese Diasporic Director: The Discourse of Bridging the East and the West in Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon	59
5 The Discourse of Cultural and National Pride: The Ambivalent Discourse of Chinese Identity in Lust, Caution	91
6 Who Performs for Whom? The Dynamic of Self-Representation and Spectatorship in an Age of Cosmopolitanism	115
Bibliography	125