

Contents

List of Contributors	VII
List of Figures	IX
Introduction
1 Orientalism transposed: the 'Easternization' of Britain and interventions to colonial discourse Julie F. Codell and Dianne Sachko Macleod	1
I. Identity, agency and masquerade	11
2 Resistance and performance: native informant discourse in the biographies of Maharaja Sayaji Rao III of Baroda (1863–1939) Julie F. Codell	13
3 About face: Sir David Wilkie's portrait of Mehemet Ali, Pasha of Egypt Emily M. Weeks	46
4 Cross-cultural cross-dressing: class, gender and modernist sexual identity Dianne Sachko Macleod	63
II. The aesthetics of the colonial gaze	87
5 The memsahib's brush: Anglo-Indian women and the art of the picturesque, 1830–1880 Romita Ray	89

6	To see or not to see: conflicting eyes in the travel art of Augustus Earle Leonard Bell	117
7	'Beyond the stretch of labouring thought sublime': Romanticism, post-colonial theory and the transmission of Sanskrit texts Kathryn S. Freeman	140
8	Cameron's photographic double takes Jeff Rosen	158
III.	Intercoloniality	187
9	Death, glory, empire: art Barbara Groseclose	189
10	Tipu Sultan of Mysore and British medievalism in the paintings of Mather Brown Constance C. McPhee	202
	Bibliography	220
	Index	241