

CONTENTS

	Page
Acknowledgements	iii
List of Figures	viii
List of Plates	x
List of Tables	xii

1. Foreword

(1) The scope and purpose of the study	1
(2) The physical endowment	3
(3) The territorial framework	6
(a) The barony	7
(b) The parish	13
(c) The 'Ploughland or Horseman's bed' and the Townland	17

2. The Quest for Ownership 1600–1640

(1) Introduction.	25
(2) The barony of 'Idough and Fasaghdeinyn' C.1584	25
(3) The O'Brenans in Fassadinin 1600–1640.	29
(a) The Anglo-Norman penetration	29
(b) The 'New-English' penetration	32
(c) Idough in 1635	33
(d) The quality of the land	36
(e) "Who were the occupiers and what their yearly value was"	39
(4) The Anglo-Normans in Fassadinin 1600–1640	42
(a) The distributional evidence	42
(b) The manorial system	49
(5) The Nua Gaill (New-English) in Fassadinin 1600–1640	53

3. Survey and Distribution

(1) Introduction.	57
---------------------------	----

(2) Survey	58
(a) Political strife in Kilkenny	58
(b) Land Quality	59
(c) The network of settlement	62
(d) Ownership in 1641	66
(e) Summary of the Down Survey	70
(3) Redistribution	70
(a) The Cromwellian land settlement	70
(b) The Restoration land settlement	74
(c) New Beginnings	77
4. Stability and Change 1700–1800
(1) Stability	84
(2) Coal and Change	92
(3) Land and Change	97
(a) The Wandesforde estate in 1746	97
(b) The origin of the middleman system	103
5. The Wandesforde Estate 1800–1840
(1) Introduction	105
(2) The Wandesforde estate c.1812	107
(3) Middlemen and land c.1838	121
(4) The middleman town	131
(5) Middlemen and coal	142
6. Fassadinin in The Mid-Nineteenth Century
(1) Introduction	149
(2) Land values in Fassadinin c.1850	149
(3) The population of Fassadinin 1841–1851	155
(a) Population distribution in 1841	155
(b) Summary of the distributional evidence	160
(c) Population change 1841–1851	161
(4) The estate system of landownership in 1850	163
(a) Estates of 1,000 acres and over	163
(i) Proprietors of English descent	165
(ii) Proprietors of Irish descent	169
(iii) Proprietors of Anglo-Norman descent	169
(b) Estates of 500 to 1,000 acres in 1850	171
(c) Estates of 100 to 500 acres in 1850	172
(d) Summary of the estate system of landownership	173
(5) The occupation of land in Fassadinin barony in 1850	176
(a) The classification of occupiers by surname on a parish basis	177

(i) Distribution of the O'Brenans	179
(ii) Distribution of English Occupiers	181
(iii) Distribution of Anglo-Norman occupiers	187
(b) Patterns of land occupation in 1850	189

7. The Wandesforde Estate c.1840–1850

(1) Introduction.	199
(2) General description	200
(3) Ownership	200
(4) Landlord-assisted emigration	204
(5) Ownership in Castlecomer town in 1850	209
(6) Landlord involvement in mining.	216

8. Conclusions 219

Notes and References.	223–234
Select Bibliography of Secondary Sources	235–242

Appendices

1. Extracts from manuscripts and other sources used in the text

(a) Four O'Brenan deeds	243
(b) The boundaries of Idough 1635	244
(c) Extract from the Down Survey of Fassadinin barony c.1654	244
(d) Contract between colliers and Lord Castlecomer 1755	245
(e) Castlecomer estate account 1821	245

2. Major Sources

(a) Inquisitions	247
(b) The Great Surveys of the Seventeenth century	247
(c) The Great Surveys of the nineteenth century	251