

TABLE OF CONTENTS

|                                  |                                  |
|----------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| Preface                          | vii                              |
| Acknowledgements                 | ix                               |
| History of Botanical Exploration | 1                                |
| Climate                          | 4                                |
| Vegetation Zones                 | 6                                |
| Origin of the Canarian Flora     | 9                                |
| Plant Folk-lore                  | 12                               |
| Areas of Botanical Interest      | 14                               |
| Tenerife                         | 14                               |
| Gran Canaria                     | 20                               |
| La Palma                         | 26                               |
| Gomera                           | 30                               |
| Hiero                            | 34                               |
| Lanzarote                        | 37                               |
| Fuerteventura                    | 38                               |
| Conservation                     | 41                               |
| Suggestions for Further Reading  | 43                               |
| Line Drawings                    | 45                               |
| Colour Plates                    | Between pages 110 and 111 |
| Family Key                       | 111                              |
| Species Descriptions             | 115                              |
| Some Canarian Ferns              | 240                              |
| Glossary of Botanical Terms      | 241                              |
| Index to Plant Names             | 248                              |