

CONTENTS

|                                                      |      |
|------------------------------------------------------|------|
| List of Illustrations and Illustration Credits ..... | ix   |
| Author Biographies .....                             | xiii |

|                                                 |   |
|-------------------------------------------------|---|
| Introduction: “Naples is the Whole World” ..... | 1 |
| Tommaso Astarita                         |   |

PART ONE

THE CITY

|                                                                                                      |    |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| 1. Constructing the Past of Early Modern Naples: Sources andHistoriography .....                 | 11 |
| John A. Marino                                                                                |    |
| 2. Urban Structures and Population .....                                                             | 35 |
| Giovanni Muto                                                                                 |    |
| 3. Representation and Self-Perception: Plans and Views of Naplesin the Early Modern Period ..... | 63 |
| Vladimiro Valerio                                                                             |    |

PART TWO

ECONOMY AND POLITICS

|                                                     |     |
|-----------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 4. Economy and Finance in Early Modern Naples ..... | 89  |
| Gaetano Sabatini                             |     |
| 5. Governing the City .....                         | 109 |
| Giulio Sodano                                |     |
| 6. Political History .....                          | 131 |
| Aurelio Musi                                 |     |

7. Nation and Ceremony: Political Uses of Urban Space in Viceroyal Naples ..... 153
Carlos José Hernando Sánchez

PART THREE

SOCIETY AND RELIGION

8. The Space of Women ..... 177
Elisa Novi Chavarria
9. The Naples Elites between City and Kingdom ..... 197
Angelantonio Spagnoletti
10. A Mediterranean Port in the Confessional Age: Religious Minorities in Early Modern Naples ..... 215
Peter A. Mazur
11. Inquisition and Church in Early Modern Naples ..... 235
Giovanni Romeo
12. Public Rituals and Festivals in Naples, 1503–1799 ..... 257
Gabriel Guarino
13. Tempi sì calamitosi: Epidemic Disease and Public Health ..... 281
David Gentilcore

PART FOUR

CULTURE, ART, AND INTELLECTUAL LIFE

14. The Visual Arts ..... 309
J. Nicholas Napoli
15. The City's Architecture ..... 331
Gaetana Cantone
16. Neapolitan Musical Culture in the Early Modern Period ..... 359
Anthony R. DelDonna

|                                                                   |     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 17. Royal and Viceregal Art Patronage in Naples (1500–1800) ..... | 383 |
| Diana Carrió-Invernizzi                                    |     |
| 18. The Enlightenment in Naples .....                             | 405 |
| Melissa Calaresu                                           |     |
| 19. Literary Culture in Naples, 1500–1800 .....                   | 427 |
| Nancy L. Canepa                                            |     |
| 20. Locating the Natural Sciences in Early Modern Naples .....    | 453 |
| Sean Cocco                                                 |     |
| Conclusion: Why Naples's History Matters .....                    | 477 |
| Anna Maria Rao                                             |     |
| Glossary of Important Italian Terms Used in Several Essays .....  | 491 |
| Kings, Viceroy, and Archbishops .....                             | 493 |
| Bibliography .....                                                | 497 |
| Index .....                                                       | 499 |

Illustrations