

Contents

Preface	xī
List of abbreviations	xv
Maps	xviii
1 Introduction: a contemplative in a troubled world	1
The sources
Gregory's Italy
Gregory and his family
Gregory's writings
2 Integritas animi : ministry in the Church	17
The contemplative and the active life
The two lives of the pastor
The rector
The rector and the Christian order
3 Sapienter indoctus : scriptural understanding	34
Education and Letters
From Augustine to Gregory
The exegetical programme
Allegory and mystery
Text and world
4 Appropinquante mundi termino : the world in its old age	51
Nearing the end
Church and world in the last age
Holiness now
In Italy
5 The Christian community and its neighbours	68
Monks and monasteries
Diversity within unity
Christians and Jews
Christians and pagans

6	Christiana respublica : within the confines of the Empire The Church in the Empire after Justinian Harmony and conflict The ecumenical patriarch	83
7	Terra mea : Italy between two worlds The papacy between the Empire and the Lombards Gregory and the Church in Italy	97
8	Argus luminosissimus : the pope as landlord The Roman Church and its lands Rome: the common larder	112
9	Scissum corpus : the schism of the Three Chapters The schism Aquileia Milan Catholicism among the Lombards Additional Note: The election of bishop Constantius	125
10	Ravenna and Rome: and beyond Aspirations and myth Gregory and Ravenna Dalmatia; and beyond	143
11	In cunctis mundi partibus : the far West The Visigoths and Spain The Frankish Church and kingdoms The Franks and the English Church	163
12	Inconcussam servare provinciam : dissent in Africa A Donatist revival? Gregory and the African Church The African Christian tradition Additional Note: Gregory's correspondence with Dominicus of Carthage	188
	Epilogue	203
	Appendix On the distribution of Gregory's correspondence	206
	Glossary of terms for offices	210
	Sources	211
	Secondary works referred to	214
	Index of Gregorian texts	225
	General index	233