

CONTENTS

I. EARLY DAYS

My proudest moment; the struggle of schooldays; a young traveller; considering the priesthood; missionary attitudes and failings; the Church and politics; the hardships of sisal workers; training as a sanitary inspector; President of the Students' Council.

page 13

2. TRADE UNIONS AND THE EMERGENCY

Brushes with racialism; learning trade unionism from James Patrick; government hostility to unions; joining KAU; the detainees' only voice; help from the ICFTU; arrested in Operation Anvil; the Mombasa strike landmark; the battle for union recognition.

page 29

3. MAU MAU: is violence avoidable?

The damage of Corfield; the real causes of Mau Mau; the land issue; Pan-Africans on violence; changes achieved; KAU's appeal to non-Kikuyu; my year at Oxford; a pamphlet on Kenya; first U.S. trip and 'airlift' talks; back to Kenya with a bump.

page 44

4. NATIONAL MOBILIZATION I: the mass movement

Teaching the goal; slogans, symbols and rallies; special role of African leaders; the positive side of tribalism; how to combat its negative aspects; traditional rulers: suspicions of Kikuyu and Luo; start of the PCP; British obstacles to national unity; my first election campaign; leaders' conferences thwarted; Positive Action and the cell system; clash of ambitions; KNP and KIM; the birth of KANU; KADU's tribal origins; regionalism; the one-party system; safeguards for democracy inside the party; the role of women and youth groups.

CONTENTS

page 61

5. NATIONAL MOBILIZATION 2: the challenge of nation-building

How free can the press be? – the role of universities; immigrant communities; partnership and other hypocrisies; the Liberals' halfway-house; the test of citizenship; how long should 'Africanization' last?; mixed marriages and Asian alarm; jumping off the fence.

page 95

6. POLITICAL TACTICS IN THE FREEDOM STRUGGLE:

'Growl now, smile later'

Macleod's methods; the importance of timing; breaking the 'fancy franchise'; LegCo as a platform; walkouts and boycotts; securing the crucial declaration; international propaganda; Welensky's interference; when to cross to Government; what Britain respects; blunders of two Governors; a disastrous broadcast; the crisis of confidence; expatriate blackmail; approach to investors.

page 115

7. PREPARING FOR INDEPENDENCE

The 'students' airlift'; the shaky school pyramid; spurring American institutions; ambassadors-at-large; adult literacy campaign; the teaching of civics; replacing the expatriate; reshaping the civil service and army; Uhuru na Kazi; on to the economic battle; the challenge to investors; the wide role for women.

page 137

8. AFRICAN SOCIALISM

Sons of the soil; sense of togetherness; anyone's banana; sanctions in a community; creating new values in the money economy; Ujamaa; government participation; nationalization; co-operatives; Kenya's special problems.

page 163

CONTENTS

9. THE NEO-COLONIAL THREAT

Consolidating independence; French bows on the aid parcel; UN as the channel?; plans for industry; more regional planning: African development bank; what price 'association' with Europe?; Macmillan's mistake.

page 178

10. BROAD HORIZONS FOR THE WORKERS

Pattern of African unions; departures from British model; the Industrial Relations Charter; political strikes; advising Uganda and Tanganyika; Scandinavian and Israeli ideas; KFL co-operatives and companies.

page 189

11. LOOKING OUTWARDS

Patriotism and nationalism; steps towards Pan-African unity; we plan PAFMECA; its achievements; an East African federation; an opening for Ethiopia and Somalia; where the AAPC went wrong; obstacles to African unity; the old game: French v. English; removing misunderstandings: the African Personality; are Arabs Africans?; attitudes to Israel; invasion of South Africa?

page 204

12. AFRICA AND THE WORLD

Neutrality in a nuclear age; moral influences; 'just pro-Africa!'; I disappoint the West; motives behind American aid; the India-China clash; the Commonwealth's future; the freedom of trade unions; government guidance; AATUF, ATUC and the disaffiliation issue; uniting the workers; cutting new trails in the world.

page 235

APPENDIX

page 257

INDEX

page 267