

CONTENTS

Preface	i
Introduction: Approaches to Literature and Culture in the Post-Theory Era GRETA OLSON & ANSGAR NÜNNING	1
PART I: AGAINST AND FOR THEORY
The History of Literary History: "Mouse-Eaten Records" or Acid Test? ULRICH HORSTMANN	21
On the Function and Value of Theory HERBERT GRABES	39
PART II: NEW HISTORICISM AND CULTURAL MATERIALISM AND THEIR INFLECTIONS ON CURRENT CRITICAL PRACTICE
New Historicism and Cultural Materialism: The Case of Early Modern Studies UTE BERNS	61
Stage(d) Life: Shakespeare and the Ecology of Media INGO BERENSMEYER	81
Performance (Studies): Contemporary American Theater between Entertainment and Efficacy ANNEKA ESCH-VAN KAN	99
PART III: FROM SOCIAL AND POLITICAL CONCERNS TO CRITICAL THEORIES AND METHODS
(Non-)Fictional (Gender)Queer Alternatives: Beyond the Binary Distinction of Sex and Gender NADYNE STRITZKE	123

Ecocriticism: Modern Cityscapes in London Urban Poetry SONJA FRENZEL	143
Reading 9/11 Texts through the Lens of Critical Media Studies GRETA OLSON	161
Part IV: LITERARY AND CULTURAL THEORIES AS FORMS OF PRACTICE
Literary Studies as a Form of 'Life Science': The Knowledge of Literature ANSGAR NÜNNING & MICHAEL BASSELER	189
The 'Translational Turn' in Literary and Cultural Studies: The Example of Human Rights DORIS BACHMANN-MEDICK	213
Notes on Contributors	235