
Contents

Acknowledgements	9
I. Omissions the Hebrew Bible?	11
Traditional Conceptions in Biblical Studies	16
Earlier Research	25
Other Approaches Share the Same Conceptions	34
Implementation of Literary Criticism	37
Text-Critical Scholarship	40
Omissions in the New Testament	44
The Evidence of the Dead Sea Scrolls	46
The Epic of Gilgamesh as a Witness to Editorial Processes	54
Assyrian Annals	58
Challenges to Literary Criticism	63
What is Authoritative Scripture?	72
Claimed and Acknowledged Authority	74
Types of Authoritativeness of Scripture	79
Geographical, Social and Other Differences	81
Various Levels of Authoritativeness	82
Changed Authoritativeness	84
Authoritative Texts: Discussion	85
Methodological Clarifications	87
Summary	88
II. Conservative Editorial Processes in the Samaritan Pentateuch	93
Expansions in the Samaritan Pentateuch	94
Small Omission, Large Impact—The Location of Sacrifices	97
The Place of Sacrifice—Gerizim or Ebal?	99
An Addition That Resulted in an Omission	101
An Omission of One Letter—Many Gods Omitted	101
Summary	102

III.	The Conservative Editorial Processes in the Book of Jeremiah . . .	103
	Several Additions in the MT of Jer 25:1–14	104
	An Omission in Jer 32:5/Jer 39:5 LXX	112
	Summary	116
IV.	The Development of Laws in the Pentateuch	117
	Deuteronomy and the Covenant Code	118
	The Use of the Older Laws as Sources for Deuteronomy	125
	Violated Virgins	129
	On the Right Conduct in Court	131
	Discussion: The Covenant Code and Deuteronomy	132
	Deuteronomy and the Holiness Code (Lev 17–26)	134
	The Festival of Weeks	139
	The Festival of Booths	142
	Discussion: Deuteronomy and the Holiness Code	143
	The Development of the Passover Law	145
	Discussion: The Passover Law	152
V.	Jubilees	155
	Introduction	155
	The Sixth and the Seventh Day of Creation	159
	Cain in Jubilees 4:7–10 and Genesis 4	162
	I Will not Marry a Canaanite	164
	Jubilees as a Witness to the Editorial Processes	165
VI.	The Temple Scroll	167
	Introduction	167
	New Moon of the First Month Festival	170
	The Passover in the Temple Scroll	172
	Pagan Mourning Practices	175
	The Idol Worshippers in Temple Scroll 55:15–21	176
	Prophets and Dreamers of Dreams	177
	The Temple Scroll as a Witness to the Editorial Processes	178
VII.	Omission as a Means of Ideological or Theological Censorship . .	183
	Introduction	183
	The Omission of Polytheistic Conceptions in Deut 32:8–9	185
	The Omission of Polytheistic Conceptions in Deut 32:43	187
	Theological Corrections—Can God Be Seen?	191
	An Addition That Created an Omission in Exod 24:9–11	195

Shiloh or Shechem in Josh 24:1, 25	197
The Omission of a Statue of Yhwh in Josh 24:26	197
A Small Omission with a Large Impact	199
Theological Omissions in the Hanna Story in 1 Sam 1-2	200
The Watering Down of a Water Pouring Ritual	210
Gods of the Philistines Changed to Idols in 2 Sam 5:21	211
Asherah Omitted in 2 Sam 5:24	212
References to the Temple of Yhwh Omitted in 2 Samuel	213
The Temple of Yhwh in Hebron Omitted in 2 Sam 15:8	221
Uzzah is Killed before God in 2 Sam 6:6-7	222
The Omission of References to the Sun-god	224
Was a Reference to the Temple of Yhwh in Samaria Omitted?	231
References to a Syncretistic Cult Omitted in 2 Kgs 10:23	234
Omission of a Reference to the People in the Temple	237
Massebah Omitted in 2 Kgs 12:10	239
Gods of the Samaritans Omitted in 2 Kgs 18:34	241
A Possible Omission of the Temple of Baal in Jerusalem	243
A Non-theological Omission in Deut 13:10	245
Discussion	248
VIII. Chronicles as a Witness to the Editorial Processes	253
Introduction	253
Large Expansions in the Account on Jehoram's reign	262
Editorial changes in the Account of Jehoiada's Rebellion	269
Extensive Rewriting of King Joash's Reign	280
Summary and Discussion	287
IX. First Esdras	295
Introduction	295
Additions in First Esdras and Ezra-Nehemiah	298
Ideological Omissions in First Esdras	301
Omission of Repetitions and Tensions	310
Summary	314
X. Radical Editorial Processes in the Book of Esther	319
Introduction	319
Substantial Editorial Changes in the Story in Esth 2:17-23	322
Omissions and Rewritings in Esther 7:1-5	328
The Omission of Mordechai in Esther 8:7-11	331
Comprehensive Rewriting in Esther 9:1-6	337

	The Feast of Purim Established—Esther 9:29–32	342
	Summary	346
XI.	Conclusions	351
	Documented Evidence Points in Different Directions	351
	Dichotomy of Evidence	360
	Textual Development within Paradigms and Paradigm Shifts . . .	362
	Gradual or Punctual Evolution?	369
	Literary Criticism	372
	Summary	384
	Bibliography	387
XII.	Index of Authors	407
XIII.	Index of Ancient Sources	411