

Table of Contents

Introduction	11
Part One: Theorising Live Poetry	15
1. Key Challenges for the Scholar of Live Poetry	15
1.1 Neglected History / a History of Neglect	15
1.2 Like So Much Hot Air? Live Poetry and the Discourse of Orality	18
1.2.1 Orality versus Literacy: The Great Divide	19
1.2.2 From Orality to Literacy: The Evolutionist Model	22
1.2.3 Performance Poetry: A Controversial Form of Live Poetry	29
1.3 Literature Review	33
2. Towards a Definition of Live Poetry	49
2.1 Poetry as a Bi-Medial Art Form	49
2.2 Live Poetry and Theatre	56
2.3 A Definition of Live Poetry	62
Part Two: Analysing Live Poetry	63
3. Comparing the Written Poem and the Performed Poem	65
4. Audiotext	75
4.1 Audiotext and Paralanguage: Experiential Meaning Potential, Provenance, Voice Set and Voice Action	75
4.2 Non-Verbal Sounds	80
4.3 Articulatory Parameters	85
4.3.1 Rhythm	86
4.3.2 Pitch	99
4.3.3 Volume	109
4.3.4 Articulation	115
4.3.5 Timbre	120
4.4 Notation	125
4.5 Composite Parameters: Tone of Voice, Accent	132
4.6 Paratext	138

5. Body Communication	145
5.1 Kinesics: Studying Body Communication	145
5.2 Functions of Body Communication	151
5.3 Elements of Body Communication	158
5.3.1 Gesture and Posture	158
5.3.2 Facial Communication	164
5.3.3 Artefactual Communication	168
5.4 Notating Body Communication	170
6. Contextualising the Performance	173
6.1 A Communication Model for Live Poetry	176
6.2 Participants	178
6.2.1 The Poet-Performer	179
6.2.2 The Audience	194
6.2.3 The MC	200
6.2.4 The Producer	202
6.2.5 Aims and Format	204
6.3 Spatio-Temporal Situation	207
6.3.1 Localised Audiences in ‘Borrowed Spaces’	207
6.3.2 The Performance Space	209
6.3.3 Place of Performance and Fictive Space	214
6.3.4 Time of Performance and Act Sequence	216
7. Jackie Hagan’s “Coffee or Tea?”: A Sample Analysis	221
8. Checklist for the Analysis of Live Poetry Performances	233
Conclusion	237
Bibliography	239
Table of Figures	263
Index	265