

CONTENTS

Dedications	x
1. Ancient Poetry and Modern Readers	1
2. Hiketeia	22
Addendum (2000)	74
3. Dramatic Character and ‘Human Intelligibility’ in Greek Tragedy	78
4. Law, Custom, and Myth: Aspects of the Social Position of Women in Classical Athens	112
5. Homeric Epic and the Tragic Moment	158
6. Tragedy in Performance	174
7. On Making Sense of Greek Religion	203
8. Mothers’ Day: A Note on Euripides’ Bacchae	235
9. The Language of Oedipus	244
10. Oedipus and Antigone at Thebes	263
11. Dionysus and the Hippy Convoy: Ritual, Myth, and Metaphor in the Cult of Dionysus	269
12. Give and Take in Herodotus	283
13. Plato and Performance	304
14. ‘... And Tell Sad Stories of the Deaths of Kings’: Greek Tragic Drama as Narrative	319
15. The Idea of Society in the Iliad Addendum (2000)	335 352
16. Herodotus and Religion	359
17. Tragedy and Collective Experience	378
18. Myth, Memory, and the Chorus: ‘Tragic Rationality’	405
Epimetrum: On the Nature of Collective Memory	415
Index	419