

Contents

List of Abbreviations xii

- 1 Introduction: the concepts of ethnicity and race in health and their implications in the context of international migration 1
- 2 Terminology and classifications for migrant, ethnic, and racial groups: the centrality of census and population registers 33
- 3 Challenges of collecting and interpreting data using the concepts of migration, ethnicity, and race 62
- 4 Historical development of health and health-care services for migrant, racial, and ethnic minorities 95
- 5 Assessing the health and health-care needs of migrant, racial, and ethnic minorities using quantitative and qualitative data 118
- 6 Inequalities, inequities, and disparities in health and health care by migration status, race, and ethnicity 163
- 7 Principles for setting priorities for the health and health care of migrants and racial and ethnic minorities 196
- 8 Policy and strategy to improve health and health care for migrants and minority racial and ethnic groups 222
- 9 Research on and with minority migrant, racial, and ethnic groups: Past, present, and future 269
- 10 Theoretical, ethical, and future-orientated perspectives on health, migration status, race, and ethnicity 317

Appendix: Terminology, categories, and censuses in Canada, Brazil, India, Australia, Fiji, Mauritius, South Africa, and Singapore 343

Glossary 347

Bibliography 355

Ethnicity and health websites: A selection 357

Index 361