CONTENTS

PART I
GENDERING RELIGION 8

Gender & Religion 10
'Plus une femme est sainte, ... , plus elle est femme': 'Naturalising' religiosity 11
On the intersection of gender studies and religious studies 12

The 'Feminisation' Thesis: a Primer 15

Approach 21
Introducing Belgian Catholics 21
Opening perspectives 23
Gender dualisms 25
Sacred Heart devotion 26
Catholic Action 29
Sermons 30
Pastoral manuals and periodicals 31
Constructing gender identities 32

PART II
'GOOD' CATHOLICS 34

The 'Pious Sex' 36
Topography of a theme 37
'The other sex' 39
Women's piety 41
Communicating with the 'pious sex' 43
'La classe dévote' 45
Women's spiritual guidance: concluding remarks 47
Only fit for women 48
'Handle with care': communicating with male parishioners 49
Winning men through 'masculine' behaviour 52
The pastor and his flock 53

Gender Ideology in Church 54
Setting 55
Pharisees, porch guards and lovers: gender prejudices and ideals pervading the sermons 64
Creating a problem? 67
Considering Belgium 68

Considering Catholic practice 71
Considering a crisis 74

Gender Ideology for the 'Little Church', the Catholic Home 76
Introducing the Catholic family, cornerstone of Christian society 78
A family model and model family 81
'Mulieri non permitto... dominari in virum' 83
A good wife is God-given 84
In the name of the Father 89
Concluding remarks 93

PART III
DEVOTED CATHOLICS 96

The Sacred Heart Devotion in Belgium 98
For the love of Christ 99
For the heart of the nation: Belgium and the Sacred Heart 106
Devotional practices and movements 110

Changing Apostles 116
'More effective than the sound of the bell': the Apostleship of Prayer at the end of the 1860s 117
The Apostleship in the 1890s: defining a problem 130
'Divide et impera': reintroducing women in the 1930s 137
Conclusion 147

Gendering Heroism 149
Catholic heroism 150
Heroic women 155
Heroic men 158
Becoming a hero and heroine 160
Models for Christians 167

PART IV
CATHOLICS IN ACTION 170

Setting the Stage: Adult Catholic Action Movements 172
Catholics in action 173
Introducing the Catholic Action in Belgium 174
Catholic Action in Belgium: youth organisations 175
New style adult Catholic Action movements 176
Young prophets and veterans 178
Mobilising the laity 181
Unity and difference 183

Mobilising Men 185
'Militant' and 'modern' movements 186
A lay movement 189
Promoters and militants 190
A focus on men 191
'Real' men 193
A single-sex movement 196
'En service commandé' 197
Catholic Action and new ideologies 198
Differentiating 200
Concluding remarks 201

Mobilising Mothers 204
Women's Catholic Action 205
'Helpers' 207
'Militantes' 209
Women's movement 211
Motherhood duties? 213
'Real' women 216
Regarding men 219
Concluding remarks 220

PART V
MAKING A DIFFERENCE 222

Adam, Eve and the Others 224
Gender dyads 225
Gender difference 232
Dichotomous constructions? 233

'Feminisation' and 'Masculinisation' 236

Epilogue 241

Abbreviations 244
Bibliography 245
Index 269
Colophon 272