

Contents

List of Figures	vii
List of Plates	viii
Prologue	ix
Acknowledgements	xiii

Part I Overview	1
------------------------	----------

§1 The Classical Tradition and the Scope of Our Book	3
§2 Mapping the Field	10
§3 Eras	15
§4 Sustaining the Tradition: Classics and Education	32
§5 Authority and Authorities	52
§6 Masters of Knowledge	61
§7 Models of Style	69
§8 Beacons of Morality	79
§9 Love Guides	87
§10 Special Relationships	98
§11 The Visual Arts: Contexts and Connections	102
§12 Popular Culture and Its Problematics	119
§13 Languages and Language	137
§14 Modes of Engagement	166
§15 Translation	173
§16 Science and Sensibility	199
§17 Looking at the Past	224
§18 The Classical Tradition – and the Rest	241

Part II Archetypes	249
---------------------------	------------

§19 Preface	251
§20 The Dome	253

§21	The Hero	263
§22	Word-Genres	276
Part III The Imaginary		287
§23	Preface	289
§24	Myth	292
§25	The City: Rome	306
§26	Forms of Government	322
§27	The Order of Things	331
Part IV Making a Difference		341
§28	Preface	343
§29	Originators	346
§30	Points of Departure	358
§31	Ideas and Action	375
Part V Contrasts and Comparisons		391
§32	Preface	393
§33	Painting	394
§34	Political Thought	402
§35	Poetry	411
Epilogue		428
Bibliography		432
Index		475