

Contents

Preface and Danksagung	9
Statement of Purpose	11
Introduction: The German Aufklärung , the European Enlightenment, and G.E. Lessing's Projects of Enlightenment: History, Culture, Politics, Philosophy, and Religion	15

Part I: Historical-Cultural Dynamics of Lessing's Life and Work

Lessing's Pursuits 1

Lessing's Erziehung and Bildung : The Pastor's Son (Kamenz)	29
Meißen. The St. Afra Gymnasium	30
Leipzig. The University Student	32
Experimentation: The Beginnings of Lessing's Projects of Enlightenment	32
The Poet	33
The Writer of Comedy 1	34
Berlin	37
The Critic	37
The Writer of Comedy 2	38
Samuel Henzi : The Fragment of a Trauerspiel and Politics	40
The Comedies Revisited	42
The Translator and Editor	42
Diderot and the Effects of Drama	44
Empfindsames Bürgerliches Trauerspiel	45
Staging Enlightenment: Miß Sara Sampson	47
Tonsine and the Orient	50
Holland	51
Frederick's Seven Years War	52
Concerning Tragedy: The Briefwechsel with Mendelssohn, and Nicolai	54
Briefe, die neueste Literatur betreffend	57
Gambling with the Devil: The Faust-Fragment	62
The Seven Years War Revisited	65

The One-Act Play, Philotas , and the Fragments, Kleonis and Alcibiades in Persien	67
Kleonis	69
Alcibiades in Persien	69
The Fables	70
Breslau	72
Gambling with Honor (Ebre): Minna von Barnhelm	76
Laokoon and Tragedy	82

Lessing's Pursuits 2

Hamburg. The National Theater Project	87
Nature and what is Natural	89
Poetry and History	91
Regarding Actors and Actresses, Painting and Performance	92
The Genius and the Critic	93
Genres	94
“Wir Deutschen”	96
The Turn from Corneille to Diderot	96
The Theater Critic as Gambler	98
Contemporary Reviews of the Hamburgische Dramaturgie	100
Mitleid /Compassion	102
The Writer’s Reception by his Contemporaries	106
Wie die Alten den Tod gebildet	109
Wolfenbüttel. The Library Project	110
Berengar of Tours	112
The Orientalist, Johann Jacob Reiske	113
Epigrams	114
Emilia Galotti : A Political Domestic Tragedy	116
The Reception of Emilia Galotti	124
Projects concerning Religion: The Reimarus Fragments, Their Reception, and the Goeze Affair	125
“Bildungsreise” Italy?	131
The “Notizbuch”	132
Final Years	136
Leben und leben lassen. Ein Projekt für Schriftsteller und Buchhändler	137
Educating the Human Race: Die Erziehung des Menschengeschlechts and Nathan der Weise	139
The Gambler on his Deathbed: The Final Days	141

Part II:
Intercultural Encounters. Moses Mendelssohn,
Johann Melchior Goeze, and German Scholarship around 1900

1. The Heart of the German Enlightenment:
Lessing and Moses Mendelssohn

The Correspondence between Mendelssohn and Lessing	147
Die Juden	150
J.R. Michaelis's Criticism of Die Juden	151
Damon, oder die wahre Freundschaft	153
Moses Mendelssohn	154
Nathan der Weise	155
Lessing, Mendelssohn and Jacobi on Spinoza	163
The Correspondence Revisited	169
Friedrich Nicolai on Lessing and Mendelssohn	170
The Friendship between Mendelssohn and Lessing	171

2. Signs of Silence and Lessing's Polemics:
Disputations on the Christian Religion

Gedanken über die Herrnhuter	175
Rettung des Hieronymus Cardanus	176
Ernst und Falk	178
Lessing contra Goeze	180
Goeze contra Lessing	187
Luther and Lessing's Enlightenment	190
The Question of the Trinity	192

3. Lessing 1900

Lessing between War and Peace	195
Women Writers	197
It had to do with Lessing	199
A Note on Spinoza at the Turn of the Century	200

Part III:
Transcultural Affinities. The European Enlightenment,
World Citizenry, and Lessing's Reception Today

Lessing, European Enlightenment, World Citizenry	205
Intellectual-Historical Contexts: The Search for Truth	207
René Descartes	207
John Locke	209
Locke's Reasonableness of Christianity	210
Gottfried Wilhelm Leibniz	211
Gotthold Ephraim Lessing	213
Adam Ferguson	215
A Republic of Letters	216
A Final Statement	219
Bibliography	221
Index	283