

Contents

| | |
|---|-----|
| Martin Dinges Introduction | 7 |
| Silvia Waisse East Meets West: Johann M. Honigberger and Medical Pluralism through the Eyes of a 19th Century Transylvanian Saxon in India | 31 |
| Shinjini Das Innovating Indigeneity, Reforming Domesticity: Nationalising Homeopathy in Colonial Bengal | 53 |
| Avi Sharma Rethinking Asymmetries in the Marketplace: Medical Pluralism in Germany, 1869–1910 | 71 |
| Ameeta R. Manchanda A Homeopathic Clinic in a Multispeciality Hospital. Reflections from Practice | 85 |
| Raj Kumar Manchanda / Surender Kumar Verma / Leena V. Chhatre / Harleen Kaur Homeopathy in Urban Primary Healthcare Units of the Delhi Government: An Assessment | 91 |
| Harish Naraindas Nosopolitics. Epistemic Mangling and the Creolization of Contemporary Ayurveda .. | 105 |
| Hugues Dusausoit The Quest for Another Recognition. Ethnography of an homeopath in Tamil Nadu | 137 |
| Marion Baschin The Patients' Choice – How and Why Sick People Used Homeopathy in 19th Century Münster | 149 |
| Rahul Tewari / Ramachandran Valavan Patients' Trend in Choosing the Homeopathic Medical System in India .. | 167 |
| Philipp Eisele Medical Pluralism and the Patients' Perspective in Germany – Letters to “Natur und Medizin” (1992–2000) | 183 |

Nupur Barua

Medical Pluralism in a Slum in Delhi:

Global Medicine in a Local Garb?..... 203

Krishna Soman

Pluralism, Popularity and Propaganda:

Narratives of Lay Practices of Homeopathy in India 217

William Sax

Looking Behind and Ahead..... 245

Authors..... 249