

Contents

Preface.....	5
Acknowledgements.....	7
Tove Francisca Sanchez	9
Part I. Language: Its Diversity, its Study, and our Understandings of it... 11
Such a Treasure of Knowledge for Human Survival Kerttu Vuolab	13
Linguistic and Biological Diversity: The Inextricable Link Luisa Maffi	17
Rethinking Language Defense Joshua A. Fishman and Gella Schweid Fishman	23
Maintaining, Developing and Sharing the Knowledge and Potential Embedded in All Our Languages and Cultures: On linguists as Agents of Epistemic Violence Jan Branson and Don Miller	28
The Politics of A-political Linguistics: Linguists and Linguicide Amir Hassanpour	33
Language Emancipation: The Finnish Case Anna-Riitta Lindgren	40
Linguistic Pluralism: A Point of Departure D. P. Pattanayak	46
Birch - Wind - Looks Lilja Liukka	48
Culture, Sharing and Language Probal Dasgupta	49
‘Spirit of the Earth’ Constance M. Beutel	52
Part II. Rights: Language Rights, their Articulation and Implementation 55
Language Maintenance as an Arena of Cultural and Political Struggles in a Changing World Naz Rassool	57

Human Rights: The Next Fifty Years Cees Hamelink	62
Tolerance and Inclusion: The Convergence of Human Rights and the Work of Tove Skutnabb-Kangas Fernand de Varennes	67
Unity in Difference - Belonging Pirkko Leporanta-Morley	72
Discourse and Access Teun A. van Dijk	73
Language Rights for the Language of Norfolk Island Peter Mühlhäusler	79
The Latvian Language Law Debate: Some Aspects of Linguistic Human Rights in Education Ina Druviete	83
Use of Language Rights by Minorities E. Annamalai	87
(Un)Writing the Margins: Steps Toward an Ecology of Language Mark Fettes	92
Part III. Equity: Justice for Speakers of All Languages	95
Writing for Diversity Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o	97
On the Financing of Language Policies and Distributive Justice François Grin and François Vaillancourt	102
Towards More Fairness in International English: Linguistic Rights of Non-native Speakers? Ulrich Ammon	111
Linguicism in Action: Language and Power in Academic Institutions Masaki Oda	117
Equality of Opportunity and Assimilation. Or: We German Left-wing Do-gooders and Minority Language Rights Antje-Katrin Menk	122
Science and Policy - When does Science Matter? Ingegerd Municio-Larsson	127
From Historical Shame to Present Struggle Jarmo Lainio	132

Which Contacts Breed Conflicts? Miklós Kontra	140
Exclusion as Discursive Practice and the Politics of Identity Mustafa Hussain	144
Part IV. Power: Policies for Multilingualism	149
Paradoxes of Plurilingualism. For better? For worse? And Beyond? Angéline Martel	151
Promoting Multilingualism and Linguistic Human Rights in the Era of Economic Rationalism and Globalization Michael Clyne	160
Language Resilience and Educational Empowerment: Philippines and Australia Jerzy J. Smolicz and Margaret J. Secombe	164
Language Policy and Planning in South Africa: Some Insights Neville Alexander	170
Mother Tongue Education: The Key to African Language Development? A Conversation with an Imagined South African Audience Zubeida Desai	174
Common Practice and Linguistic Human Rights: A-Team v. B-Team Coercion or the Co-construction of 'Utopia' Shelley K. Taylor	179
Creating a Bilingual Family in a 'Monolingual' Country Leena Huss	187
The Reindeer on the Mountain, the Reindeer in the Mind: On Sámi Yoik Lyrics Harald Gaski	193
Part V. Education: Affirming Diversity, Confirming Rights	201
The Linguistic Human Rights of Sign Language Users Markku Jokinen	203
The Linguistic Problem Child has Many Names Pertti Toukomaa	214
Creating a Successful Minority School Markku Peura	219
Bilingual versus Bilingual Education: The Case of Slovakia Istvan Lanstyak	227

Giving Good Weight to Multilingualism in South Africa
Kathleen Heugh	234
Education for All - In Whose Language?
Birgit Brock-Utne	239
Language: A Diversity Category Beyond All Others
Ofelia García	243
‘This Place Nurtures my Spirit’: Creating Contexts of Empowerment in Linguistically-diverse Schools
Jim Cummins	249
Dual Language Models and Intergenerational Inspirations
Dawn Wink and Joan Wink	259
Integrative Comment: Living with Vision and Commitment
Robert Phillipson	264
Contributors	279
Bibliography	289
Index	305