

CONTENTS

Note on Proper Names ix

Preface xi

1. Introduction 1
2. Vodka Politics 13
3. Cruel Liquor: Ivan the Terrible and Alcohol in the Muscovite Court 26
4. Peter the Great: Modernization and Intoxication 36
5. Russia's Empresses: Power, Conspiracy, and Vodka 49
6. Murder, Intrigue, and the Mysterious Origins of Vodka 60
7. Why Vodka? Russian Statecraft and the Origins of Addiction 75
8. Vodka and the Origins of Corruption in Russia 92
9. Vodka Domination, Vodka Resistance . . . Vodka Emancipation? 111
10. The Pen, the Sword, and the Bottle 127
11. Drunk at the Front: Alcohol and the Imperial Russian Army 149
12. Nicholas the Drunk, Nicholas the Sober 169
13. Did Prohibition Cause the Russian Revolution? 185
14. Vodka Communism 198
15. Industrialization, Collectivization, Alcoholization 216
16. Vodka and Dissent in the Soviet Union 236
17. Gorbachev and the (Vodka) Politics of Reform 256
18. Did Alcohol Make the Soviets Collapse? 274
19. The Bottle and Boris Yeltsin 287

20. Alcohol and the Demodernization of Russia	308
21. The Russian Cross	326
22. The Rise and Fall of Putin's Champion	338
23. Medvedev against History	360
24. An End to Vodka Politics?	378

Notes 393

Index 473