

Contents

Preface	ix
Abbreviations	xi
Introduction	I
I FROM HISTORY TO METHOD
1. Why Textual Scholarship Matters	19
2. “The Inorganic Organization of Memory”	32
3. Memory: History, Philosophy, Philology	49
II FROM THEORY TO METHOD
4. The Documented World	77
5. Marking Texts in Many Dimensions	90
6. Digital Tools and the Emergence of the Social Text	113
III FROM METHOD TO PRACTICE
7. What Do Scholars Want?	127
8. Philological Investigations I: The Example of Poe	147
9. Philological Investigations II: A Page from Cooper	168
Conclusion: Pseudodoxia Academica ; or, Literary Studies in a Global Age	199
Notes	209
Acknowledgments	231
Index	233