
Contents

List of maps	vii
List of illustrations	viii
Foreword	x
Acknowledgements	xii
Introduction	1
Part I
1. The natural landscape	8
Shields, sediments and surfaces	9
Relief and drainage	10
Climate	13
Vegetation and soils	14
2. The Amerindian landscape	17
The post-colonial period	22
Part II
3. The colonial landscape	26
The discovery	26
First impressions	27
Early initial exploitation	29
Economic cycles	30
Landscapes of cane	31
Exploration of the interior	32
Landscapes of conversion	34
The River-Sea and the forest	35
Cattle in the sertão	37
Cattle and colonies in the South	38
Landscapes of gold	40
The late colonial landscape	42
Other European lands	43
The urban scene	43
4. The African landscape	46
	v

Part III

5. The neo-colonial landscape	52
The late colonial legacy	53
Landscapes of coffee	55
Landscapes of rubber	62
Immigrant landscapes	64
Extension of the coffee landscape	65
Migrant expectations	66
Visions of a new land	67
Landscapes of colonization	68
Foreign capital and investment	76
Foreign views of Brazilian landscapes	84

Part IV

6. The modern landscape	96
Landscapes of development	97
Townscapes	106
Small townscapes	109
Big cityscapes	111
Planned townscapes	119
Company towns	128
Urban embellishments	132
Landscapes of poverty	135
The frontier	142
The last frontier?	148
Behind the frontier	154
Landscape destruction and conservation	163
7. Media landscapes	170
Official landscapes	171
Landscapes of mass media and mass consumption	173
Landscapes of tourism	177
Landscapes of literature	185
8. Conclusion – retrospect and prospect	191
Bibliography	197
Index	208