

Contents

Acknowledgements	vi
Introduction: Causality after the Linguistic Turn	1
1 Intellectual Historians and the Content of the Form	26
Telling the truth about Derrida	27
Textualism and contextualism	31
Explaining metahistories	34
Context and cause	38
2 Social History, Cultural History, Other Histories	52
The languages of social history	52
The new cultural history	61
Other histories and histories of the other	68
3 Causes, Events and Evidence	86
What is history? Causation and determinism	86
Theories of the event	93
Selection of evidence	100
4 Time, Narrative and Causality	117
Emplotment and story-telling	118
Narrative, history and fiction	122
Problem-oriented history	127
Narration and explanation	132
5 Explanation and Understanding	149
Explaining actions	149
Why-questions, generalizations and theories	159
Comparative and counterfactual methods	164
6 Theories of Action and the Archaeology of Knowledge	180
Culture, practices and actions	180
Communicative actions	184
Structuration and the de-centred individual	192
Power and discourse	196
Conclusion	217
Select Bibliography	225
Index	254