

Contents

Notes on Contributors	vii
1 Assemblage Thinking and International Relations	1
Michele Acuto and Simon Curtis
Part 1 Theories of Assemblage
2 The Carpenter and the Bricoleur	17
A Conversation with Saskia Sassen and Aihwa Ong
3 Tracing Global Assemblages, Bringing Bourdieu to the Field	25
A Conversation with Rita Abrahmsen and Michael Williams
4 Assemblages and the Conduct of Inquiry	32
A Conversation with Stephen J. Collier
Part 2 Ontologies of Assemblage
5 Cognitive Assemblages and the Production of Knowledge	40
Nick Srnicek
6 Global Assemblages and Structural Models of International Relations	48
Olaf Corry

Part 3 Methods of Assemblage

- 7 Thinking Assemblages Methodologically: Some Rules of Thumb 58
Christian Bueger
- 8 Energizing the International 67
Debbie Lisle
- 9 Visual Assemblages: From Causality to Conditions of Possibility 75
Roland Bleiker

Part 4 Materialities of Assemblage

- 10 Security in Action: How John Dewey Can Help Us Follow the Production of Security Assemblages 83
Peer Schouten
- 11 Welcome to the Machine: Rethinking Technology through Assemblage Theory 91
Antoine Bousquet

Part 5 Politics of Assemblage

- 12 The Onto-Politics of Assemblage 99
David Chandler
- 13 Agencement and Traces: A Politics of Ephemeral Theorizing 106
Xavier Guillaume
- 14 The Assemblage and the Intellectual-as-Hero 113
Mark B. Salter
- Conclusions: Assemblage Theory and Its Future 118
Graham Harman

References 131

Index 142