

Contents

Acknowledgements IX

List of Figures XI

Introduction 1

- 1 Belgium and World War I 12
 - The Size of the Army Before World War I 13
 - The Language Issue to World War I 13
 - Deployment Controversies before World War I 19
 - The Belgian Army in World War I 22
 - The German Occupation of Belgium 25
 - Belgium and the Peace Settlement 31
- 2 Belgium Looks for Allies 39
- 3 Belgian Defense Policy to the Great Depression 51
 - The Main Actors in Defense Policy 51
 - The Reduction of the Belgian Army 55
 - Plans for Defense Against a Threatening Germany 58
 - General Galet 61
 - The Language Issue between 1918 and 1932 64
 - The Depression and the Belgian Military 67
- 4 The Devèze Years 70
 - The Chasseurs ardennais 77
 - The Budget Controversy 79
 - Raoul van Overstraeten 82
 - Devèze v. Nuyten 84
 - Franco-Belgian Staff Talks 89
 - The Motorization of the Cavalry Corps 93
 - The Debates over Coverage and Service Time 103
 - The Reoccupation of the Rhineland 110
- 5 The 1936 Mixed Commission 122
 - The Language Issue from the Mixed Commission to the War 152
 - Other Commissions 162
- 6 'Independence' and its Origins 165
- 7 The Belgian Army to May 10, 1940 190
 - The Development and Assessment of the Belgian Military 191
 - Fortifications from 1938 to 1940 194
 - Defense Against Aircraft 199
 - The Sudeten Crisis and the Pied de Paix Renforcé 200

	New Mobilization Plans	208
8	Belgium to May 10, 1940	210
	Diplomacy	210
	Belgium and the Netherlands	217
	Mobilization	220
	Belgian Military Intelligence and Alerts	226
9	The 'Eighteen-Days' Campaign	236
	Conclusion	264
	Bibliography	274
	Index	282