

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction	1
1 Fantasy and Counter-Revolution in the Theory and Fiction of Charles Nodier	18
2 History and Politics in the Fantastic Fiction of Hoffmann, and his Reception in France	48
3 The Double Life of the Artist in the Récits fantastiques of Théophile Gautier, and the Rejection of Bourgeois Life under the July Monarchy	79
4 ‘A Life in Death a Death in Life’: the Legitimist Novels of Paul Féval and the Catastrophe of the Second Empire	108
5 Paul Féval’s Le Chevalier Ténèbre and Le Fanu’s ‘The Room in the Dragon Volant’: the Failures of the Bourbon Restoration	137
6 Robert Louis Stevenson’s ‘Olalla’, The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde and the Refutation of Utilitarian Morality	162
Conclusion	189
Notes	191
Short Chronology of Relevant Events	219

Contents

Bibliography	223
Index	231