

Contents

Editor's Acknowledgements	vii
Illustrations	viii
List of Contributors	ix
Introduction Felicity Hunt	xi
Part I Ideologies in Education	1
1 Divided Aims: the Educational Implications of Opposing Ideologies in Girls' Secondary Schooling, 1850–1940 Felicity Hunt	3
2 Miss Buss and Miss Beale: Gender and Authority in the History of Education Carol Dyhouse	22
3 The Ideology of Femininity and Reading for Girls, 1850–1914 Deborah Gorham	39
4 Learning Through Leisure: Feminine Ideology in Girls' Magazines 1920–50 Penny Tinkler	60
Part II Inequalities in Education	81
5 Learning Her Womanly Work: the Elementary School Curriculum, 1870–1914 Annamarie Turnbull	83
6 Inequalities in the Teaching Profession: the Effect on Teachers and Pupils, 1910–39 Alison Oram	101

7	Better a Teacher Than a Hairdresser? 'A Mad Passion for Equality' or, Keeping Molly and Betty down Deborah Thom	124
Part III Experiences in Education		147
8	Cultural Reproduction in the Education of Girls: a Study of Girls' Secondary Schooling in Two Lancashire Towns, 1900–50 Penny Summerfield	149
9	Pioneer Women Students at Cambridge, 1869–81 Perry Williams	171
	Notes	192
	Index	218