

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	vii
Abbreviations	ix
1. Introduction	1
Walter Laqueur and Robert Hunter
2. The Peace Movements, European Neutralism, and the Future of the Atlantic Alliance	13
William G. Hyland
3. Uncertain Future—NATO after 35 years	31
Irving Kristol
4. A Plan to Reshape NATO	41
Henry Kissinger
5. The Western Misalliance	56
Theodore Draper
6. Pacifism and East-West Relations	112
Pierre Hassner
7. The Nordic Peace Movements	144
Niels Jorgen Haagerup
8. The Precarious Peace in Europe: The West in Search of a Political Strategy	166
Uwe Nerlich
9. Pacifism in the Netherlands	191
Frans A.M. Alting von Geusau
10. Britain's Nuclear Disarmers	218
Martin Ceadel
11. All Quiet on the French Front?	245
Nicole Gnesotto
12. The Churches and the Peace Movement: The British Experience	260
Edward Norman

13.	War and Peace and the German Church	273
	Siegfried Scharrer
14.	The Origins and Aims of the German Peace Movement	318
	Peter Graf von Kielmansegg
15.	The Arguments of the German Peace Movement.	339
	Ulrich de Maiziere
16.	Neutrality and the Moral Order in West Germany	356
	Jeffrey Herf
17.	Apocalypse Now: The American Peace Movement in the 1980s.	402
	David Thomas
	About the Contributors.	434
	Index	439