

Contents

	Preface	v
1	What Is Evaluation? The Clarification of Values.
	Evaluation as Inquiry.	1
	Theoretical Requirements.	6
	A Theory of Valuation.	9
	Two Controversial Examples: Jencks et al. Inequality, and Bereiter, Must We Educate?	18
2	Who Is Educated?
	Trait and Factor Psychology.	38
	History of Factor Theory.	45
	Outlines of a Factor Theory.	51
	Two Basic Principles.	59
	Special Aptitudes.	66
	Motivation for Scholastic Achievement.	82
	Summary of the Relationship Between Evaluation and the Initial Abilities and Motives of the Learner.	85
3	What Is Education for?
	Three Principles of Criterion Selection.	91
	A Theory of Educational Criteria Focused on Intellectual Development.	93
	Predictive Validities of Educational Criteria.	109
	Tests as Criteria.	130
	Nontest Criteria.	141
	Summary on Criteria and Evaluation.	148

4	Where Does Education Happen?
	The Context Principle.	151
	The Family Variables.	155
	The Institution Variables.	162
	The Peer Group Variables.	165
	Summary on Context Variables.	168
5	How Does Education Happen?
	The Continuous Measurement Principle.	169
	Some Research Results.	175
	A Need for Theory.	184
	Illustration of Applying the Model of Classroom Dimensions.	193
	Summary on Instructional Variables.	196
6	How Is Education Modeled?
	Regression Primer.	203
	Canonical Correlation Examples.	212
	Partitioning Variance in Multivariate Regression.	218
	A Research Example from the Learning Research and Development Center (LRDC).	223
	A Research Example from Australia.	228
	Aggregates as Units of Analysis.	233
	Other Factor Analysis Applications.	241
	Critique of Multivariate Analysis of Variance and Covariance Modeling.	246
	Data, Analysis, and Valuation.	251
7	Examples of Evaluative Inquiry.
	Marketing LRDC's Perceptual Skills Curriculum.	261
	The Educational and Career Information System.	273
	The Wisconsin Study of Guidance Practices and Results.	278
	Bilingualism and Primary Education in Ireland.	284
	Reading Trends in England Since 1938.	289
	The 1972 ESAA Pilot Program Evaluation Plan from USOE.	291
	Work Statement for Evaluation of Talent Search and Upward Bound Programs.	303
	ETS, an Evaluation Agency.	306
	GAO Critiques the Evaluation of Performance Contracting.	315

CONTENTS	xi
8 Evaluation of the National Follow Through Program.	325
9 How Can Evaluations Influence Decisions and Policies?	339
References	351
Index	363