

Contents

1 By way of introduction 1

2 Organization 7

*Compulsory school ages – Types of school – Co-education –
Size of classes – Streaming – Boarding places – Terms and holidays
– School hours – The working day – Homework*

3 What they do and how they do it 24

*Attitudes to education – Programmes of the primary and secondary schools – Standardization of the curriculum – Syllabuses:
the native language, mathematics, history*

4 The teacher and his work: I 40

Some lessons described

5 The teacher and his work: II 69

Standards – Pupil-teacher relationships – Progress in Spain – Some pupils' views – Conditions of work – The darker side – The teaching profession – Promotion – Retirement – Inspectors – Staff organization – Some teaching techniques – Teaching aids – A rural teacher in Portugal – Teachers' centres – Classroom devices – The teacher's duties – Ancillary workers

6 Testing the work 102

End-of-term assessment – Recuperative work – The Spanish approach to continuous assessment – Fichas – A Portuguese assessment test – Two newspaper reports – A German informal test

7 Buildings and equipment 113

Buildings old and new – School planning – Buildings and their use – Space – Beauty and drabness in the school – Deficiencies – Some attractive new schools – Classroom layout and atmosphere – Laboratories – Sports halls – Other special teaching rooms – Halls, libraries etc. – Miscellaneous rooms – School meals – Grounds and playing areas – Desks – Chalkboards – Teaching aids – Textbooks and stationery

8 Away from the classroom 149

Sport – Clubs and activities – Expeditions and outings – School magazines – Children's writings – Social activities

9 Pastoral care and welfare 160

Role of the form teacher – Relations with parents – The class council – Records and documentation – Marks and assessments – Reports – Recuperation – Educational welfare – Fees and grants – Medical services – Contact with parents

10 Rules and regulations 185

The approach to discipline in the schools – Some school rule-books – Sanctions and codes of discipline – Educational democracy in Germany – Problems in Italy – Atmosphere of the schools – Customs and courtesies – Dress – The overall as a working dress – Hair

11 And so . . . ? 214

APPENDICES

I Curriculum in France 221

II Curriculum in Italy 225

III Curriculum in Portugal 227

IV Curriculum in Spain 229

V Curriculum in West Germany 232

VI Numbering of classes 235

VII Working hours 237

VIII Teachers' salaries 239

IX Blueprint for a Spanish school 242

Glossary 244

List of schools 253

Index 257