

CONTENTS

PART 1. THE EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM IN THE SOCIAL STRUCTURE

- 1 / The Changing Society 3
Recent Economic and Social Changes. Changing Societal Structure. Basic Inequalities in American Society. Changing Values. Pluralism vs. Assimilation of Minorities.
- 2 / Social Structure And The Schools Of America 14
Some Fifth-Grade Classrooms. The Social-Class Hierarchy. Social Structure in America. Subcultures of the Social Classes. Social Structure: A Nationwide View. Social-Class Segregation in the Schools. Social Class in Relation to Ethnic and Racial Minority Groups.
- 3 / Mobility In The Social Structure 39
Upward Mobility as Social Learning. Downward Mobility. Upward Mobility in a Democratic Society. Intelligence, Education, and Mobility. Group Mobility. Extent of Mobility in the United States.
- 4 / The School As A Sorting And Selecting Agency 61
Education as the Avenue of Opportunity. How the School Selects. Intelligence in Relation to Social Class and Color. How the School Operates as a Selecting Agency. The School, Social Stability, and Social Fluidity. Conclusion.
- 5 / The College In The Social Structure 86
Decreasing Selectivity in College Admissions? Factors Related to College Attendance Prior to 1970. Types of

CONTENTS

Colleges. How Many Should Go to College? The Socioeconomic Functions of Colleges and Universities. The 1970–1975 Crisis.

PART 2. THE SCHOOL AS A SOCIALIZING AGENCY

6 / Socialization And The Child's Life Space 115

The Influence of the Social Environment. Socialization in the Early Years of Life. Development of Social Loyalties and Social Values. The Concept of Life Space. The Mass Media.

7 / The Family And The School 134

The Family. The Family as a Social System. Social Class Differences in Families. The Culture of the School. Family Preparation for School. Compensatory Education. Conclusion.

8 / The Peer Group 160

The Nature of the Peer Group. The Peer Group as a Learning Situation. Functions of the Peer Group. The Growing Influence of the Peer Group. Status in the Peer Group. The Peer Group and the School. Youth-Serving Agencies and Peer Groups. Inner-City Youth Organizations.

9 / The Transition From Adolescence To Adulthood 182

Youth as a Separate Stage of Life: Age 15–24. Experience of Youth During the Transition Period. The Counterculture. Categories of Youth. Objectives for Youth. School and College Take on Custodial Functions. Proposals for Educative Institutions. Drug Abuse. Delinquency. Types and Causes of Juvenile Delinquency. The Prevention of Delinquency.

PART 3. THE EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM IN THE COMMUNITY

10 / The Community School 215

What Is a Community? A. The Traditional School. B. The School as a Model of the Community. C. The Community School. The Community School Movement.

11 /	Metropolitan Development And Educational Problems	225
	Urbanization. Metropolitanism and the Schools. Increased Socioeconomic and Racial Segregation in the Schools. Stratification in the Metropolitan Area. Effects of Neighborhood Differences on the Schools. Urban Renewal. Movement Toward Metropolitan Cooperation and Government.
12 /	Local Community Control And Administrative Decentralization In Big-City School Systems	248
	Achievement of Pupils in the Public Schools in the Big Cities. The Ocean Hill–Brownsville Case. Decentralization of New York City Schools. Decentralization in Other Cities. How to Study Problems and Issues Involving Interaction of Social Systems.
13 /	School Systems Interacting With Other Social Systems In The Metropolitan Area	266
	Social System Defined. Bigness of School Systems. Relations Among Educational Subsystems. The Use of Education Vouchers. Free Schools. Alternative Schools. Intersystem Relations in the Metropolitan Area. The “Independence” of School Systems. Political Perspectives Concerning Education in Metropolitan Areas.
PART 4. THE EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM IN THE WIDER SOCIETY
14 /	Education, Population And Economic Trends	291
	Population Growth. Changes in Age Distribution. Immigration. Differential Rates of Reproduction. Effects of Population Changes and Economic Trends upon the Schools and Colleges. Societal Development and Postgraduate Education. Responses of an Age Cohort to Changing Social Reality.
15 /	Education And The Black Minority	310
	Urbanization and Migration of the Black Population. Economic Development. Is There a Black Subculture? The Black Revolution. Desegregation of Schools. Effects of School Integration. Black Students and Professors in Higher Education. Equality of Opportunity

CONTENTS

	or Equality of Achievement? Strategy for the Next Decade.
16 /	Education And Other Minority Groups	339
	Americans of Spanish Descent. Oriental Americans. The American Indians. European Immigrant Groups. Educational Programs for Minority Groups.
17 /	Social Integration, Cultural Pluralism, And The Educational System	363
	Pluralism in Nineteenth Century America. The Melting Pot. The Rise of Cultural Pluralism. Cultural Separatism. Separatism, Pluralism, and Conflict.
18 /	Women In Education	382
	Changes in Women's Roles. The Education of Women. Directed Social Change.
PART 5. THE TEACHER
19 /	The Social Characteristics Of Teachers	401
	The Choice of Teaching as an Occupation. Heterogeneity in Social-Class Origins. Social Mobility Among Teachers. Social Origin as a Factor in Teaching Performance. Teachers as a Heterogeneous Group. The Career Pattern.
20 /	The Teacher In The Community And Classroom	425
	The Teacher's Roles in the Community. The Teacher's Roles in the School. The Teacher as Socializing Agent. Leadership in the Classroom. Research on Teaching Behavior.
21 /	The Teaching Profession	448
	The Status of Teachers in Various Countries. Characteristics of Teachers in the United States. The Economic Status of the Teacher. Professionalization. NEA—AFT: Merger? Conclusion.
	Bibliography	471
	Index	505