Contents

Chapter 1 Introduction 1
1. The Savage as Model 1
2. Suspicion of Psychology 2
3. Know-it-all Folk 4
4. 'Cold' Societies: Polygyny, Witchcraft, and Bricolage 5
5. Can We Compare Primitive and Modern Societies? 7
6. Using Anthropology to Attack the Middle Class 10
7. Personal View 13

Chapter 2 The Importance of Literacy 17
1. Literacy and Domination 18
2. Literacy and Liberation 21
3. Celebrating Illiteracy 23
4. Literacy and Thinking 26
5. Memory 30
6. Literacy and Word-Magic 33
7. Conclusion 36

Chapter 3 Culture and Thinking 41
1. Uniformities and Inequalities: Anthropological and Psychological Emphases 42
2. Piaget and Cross-cultural Research 45
3. Bruner and the Prepotent School 48
4. City-effect 51
5. Navigation and Abstraction 55
6. Language, Thinking, and Truth 58
7. Conclusion: The Importance of Out-of-Context Learning 62

Chapter 4 The Social Basis of Rationality 69
1. Witchcraft Revalued 70
2. Education and Irrationality 73
3. Schooling and Millennium 76
4. Dangers of Community 79
5. Conclusion: Witchcraft or Suicide 83

Chapter 5 Learning to be Modern 87
1. Responses to Modernity 87
2. Function, Needs, and Change 89

3. Pastoralism and Anti-modernity 94
4. Psychological Explanations 97
5. Obedience Training and Social Change 101
6. Cities and Elites 105
7. Conclusion: Modernity and Fulfilment 108

Chapter 6 Culture, Relativism, and the Curriculum 114
1. The Concept of Culture 115
2. What Is, Ought To Be? 119
3. The Repugnance of Relativism 122
4. The Importance of Kuhn and Winch 124
5. Transcendental Yardsticks 126
6. The Curriculum and Ethnic Minorities in Contemporary Britain . 128
7. The Dialectic of Integration–Particularism 133
8. Conclusion 136

Chapter 7 Age, Rituals, and Symbols: Education and the Social Order 144
1. Youth in Age-set and Modern Societies 145
2. The Dysfunctions of Age-set Systems 148
3. Ritual and Conservatism 151
4. Symbols and Social States 153
5. Languages that Lie 157
6. Age and Rites in Three Social Groups 159
7. Conclusion 169

Chapter 8 Conclusion 173
1. The Celebration of Schooling 173
2. The Post-kinship Society 174
3. The Problems of Pluralism 176
4. A Conflict of Pedagogies 179
5. Conclusion: The Third Cultural Reality 181

Index 185