

CONTENTS

I	The Place of Ethnicity in Social Work	page
1	Introduction to the Issues JULIET CHEETHAM	3
2	The American Ethnic Dilemma SHIRLEY JENKINS	20
II	Establishing Need and Shaping Policy
	Introduction JULIET CHEETHAM	37
3	Race Relations Policies in Social Services Departments – The Tasks and the Problems MARY WELLS	43
4	A Survey of Referrals from Asian Families to Four Social Services Area Offices in Bradford E. HORN	50
III	Client Groups
5	Some Priorities JULIET CHEETHAM	75
6	Policy Dilemmas and the Adoption of Black Children C. BAGLEY and L. YOUNG	83
7	Finding Black Families for Black Children in Britain ELAINE ARNOLD	98
8	An American Experience in Child Care Services FLORENCE KREECH	112
9	Ethnic Minority Elderly People: Some Issues of Social Policy FRANK GLENDENNING	122
10	Social Work with Ethnic Minority Elderly People VIVIENNE COOMBE	133
IV	Working Across Cultures
	Some Thoughts on Practice JULIET CHEETHAM	143
11	Racial and Cultural Factors in a Casework Relationship PATRICIA KING	147
12	A Social Services Department and the Bengali Community: A New Response JAN DRYDEN	155

V The Development of Services

Objectives and Dilemmas	JULIET CHEETHAM	page 165
13. Developing an Appropriate Service: A Local Authority's Use of Section II	BRIAN WALLER	171
14. Ethnicity as a Basis for Problem Solving: A Study of the Asian Resource Centre, Birmingham	RANJIT SONDHI	178
15. Black Social Workers in White Departments	BARNEY ROONEY	184
16. Some Approaches to Recruitment and In-Service Training for Multiracial Social Work	SHAMA AHMED	197
17. Recruitment and Education for Work with Minorities: British and American Perspectives	JULIET CHEETHAM	208
18. The Dilemmas and Contribution of Black Social Workers	VERROL LIVERPOOL	224
19. 'Home Is Where One Starts From': Reflections of an Ethnic Minority Social Worker	STEPHEN PARVEZ RASHID	232
Notes on Contributors		239
Index		242