

Contents

1	Historical background	1
	The distribution of power	1
	The extended use of examinations	3
	The age of the expert	5
	Respectability	7
	The importance of examinations	8
2	The functions of examinations	10
	Qualifying examinations	10
	Competitive examinations	11
	Selection and the loss of innocence	15
	Aims and incentives	17
	Determining the curriculum	19
	Looking backward or forward	21
3	Scientific examining	24
	Human ability	24
	Human frailty	27
	Objectivity	29
	Computers	32
	Efficiency	34
4	Teacher control	39
	Validity	39
	Universities and teacher training	41
	Technical tradition	45
	The General Certificate of Education	47
	The Certificate of Secondary Education	49
5	Secondary school innovations	54
	Innovation	54
	The Schools Council	55

Contents

	The common examination	60
	The sixth-form curriculum	63
	The new sixth-formers	70
6	Morale	73
	Mass failure	73
	Pass marks	74
	Doing away with examinations	77
	Bibliography	82
	Index	86