

Contents

Foreword xi

PART ONE: THE FIRST AMERICAN SOCIETY, 1607-1775

I. Origins	3
1. Foundations of Settlement	5
II. The Limits of Colonial Progress	21
2. The Land	23
3. Labor	38
4. Wealth	49
5. Commonwealth	67
III. The First American Society	81
6. Rank and Degree	83
7. Well-Governed Families	96
8. Established Churches in the New World	105
9. Communities in Dispersion	111

PART TWO: THE SOCIETY OF INDIVIDUALS, 1775-1875

I. Economic Revolution	127
10. The Westward Movement	129
11. The Atlantic Migration	148
12. Commercial and Industrial Revolution	162
II. Social Disorder	175
13. The Era of the Common Man	177
14. The "Copartnership of Marriage"	204
15. The Community as Real Estate	218

vi      Contents

III. Conservative Reaction	233
16. Social Uses of Religion	235
17. Moral Voluntarism	254
18. Liberty and Union	275

PART THREE: THE RECONSTITUTED SOCIETY,
1875-1945

I. Economic Progress and Reform	301
19. The Farmers' Last Frontier	303
20. Captains of Industry and Armies of Labor	314
21. The Search for Economic Security	332
II. A Personalized Society	359
22. Victims of Individualism	361
23. "Congeries of Social Atoms"	377
24. The Companionate Family	396
25. Churches and the American Way	411
26. Social Control and Social Adjustment	426
27. The Voluntary Order	444

EPILOGUE AND PROLOGUE

28. In Quest of the Great Society: Since 1945	457
---	-----

Notes	481
--------------	-----

Bibliographical Essay	501
------------------------------	-----

Index	513
--------------	-----