

Table of contents

Introduction: The Critic's Revenge (Stanley Bill)	7
Part I	11
1. Narration as Dramatic Monologue	13
2. A Portrait of Marcolf	41
3. Socialist Parnassianism	57
4. Polish Literature on the Holocaust	63
5. Through the Eyes of the Executioner	77
6. Narrative, Newspeak, Totalitarian Form	89
Part II	95
7. On Totalitarian Discourse	97
8. "Don't Let the Past Run Wild":	101
9. Stalin the Magician	123
10. Russian, German, Jew	135
11. Talking Like Them	145
12. Styles of Being, Styles of Speech	157
13. An Account of the Papal Visit	211
14. Instigators	233
15. Ulysses' Day	245
16. Three Days with Nasz Dziennik	253
17. The Crisis in Patriotic Discourse	275
Part III	293
18. Characteristics of Anti-Semitic Discourse	295
19. The Poetics of a Political Forgery	311
20. Always the Same	327
21. The Case of Jan Dobraczyński	347