Contents

Figure and Tables page ix

Acknowledgments xi

Introduction 1

Peaceland and Its Puzzles 2

Everyday Dimensions of Peacebuilding Effectiveness 7

Why Read This Book? 15

Overview 17

1 Studying the Everyday 20

Peacebuilding and Its Effectiveness 20

An Empirical Shift: Studying On-the-Ground Peacebuilding 24

The Concepts 29

The Explanation 35

The Other Explanations 45

Conclusion 56

PART I CONSTRUCTING KNOWLEDGE OF THE HOST COUNTRY 59

The Inhabitants of Peaceland 60

Outsiders' and Insiders' Roles in Peacebuilding 64

2 The Politics of Knowledge 68

Thematic Expertise Over Local Knowledge 70

Sources of the Imbalance 75

Intended and Unintended Effects 79

Conclusion 95

3 Local Reactions 97

Knowledge, Arrogance, and Resentment 99

Lack of Local Ownership and Authorship 102

Adaptation, Contestation, and Resistance 107

Conclusion 112

4 Fumbling in the Dark 115
Data Collection and Analysis 116
Main Consequences 131
Conclusion 156

PART II CONSTRUCTING AND MAINTAINING BOUNDARIES 159

5 The Interveners' Circle 161
The Community 162
Separation from the Other 174
Unintended Consequences: Isolation and Its Costs 183
Identifying the Exceptions 188
Conclusion 192

6 A Structure of Inequality 194
The Ethics of Care 195
The Interveners' Resources 205
Accountability 209
Conclusion 214

7 Daily Work Routines 216
Security Routines 217
Intervention Rituals 230
Preferred Results 239
Conclusion 245

Conclusion: Transforming Peaceland 247
The Argument, in a Nutshell 249
Beyond Peace Interventions 251
Ongoing Challenges and Potential Responses 254
Conclusion 273

Appendix: An Ethnographic Approach 275
Theory Building in Congo 276
Consolidation and Generalization through Fieldwork in Eight Other Conflict Zones 278
Five Kinds of Material 282
Developing a Trustworthy Analysis 284
Conclusion 287

Bibliography 289
Index 321