

Contents

Preface and Acknowledgments	vii
Section 1 Charting the Territory
1 Comparative North American Studies and Its Contexts: Introduction Reingard M. Nischik	3
2 Imagining North America Rachel Adams	33
Section 2 Perspectives on Multiculturalism
3 Multiculturalism in the United States and Canada Sabine Sielke	49
4 Comparative Race Studies: Black and White in Canada and the United States Eva Gruber	65
5 Comparing Indigenous Literatures in Canada and the United States Katja Sarkowsky	85
6 Naturalization and Citizenship in North America Mita Banerjee	103
Section 3 French-Language and English-Language Cultures in North America
7 Comparative Canadian/Québécois Literature Studies Marie Vautier	129
8 Québécois Literature and American Literature Jean Morency (Translation: Jo-Anne Elder)	149
9 North America's Francophone Borderlands Monika Giacoppe	165

Section 4 Regions and Symbolic Spaces

- 10 The Literatures of the Mexico-US and Canada-US Borders 185
Claudia Sadowski-Smith
- 11 Regionalism in American and Canadian Literature 199
Florian Freitag
- 12 The North in English Canada and Quebec 219
Christina Kannenberg
- 13 North American Urban Fiction 237
Caroline Rosenthal

Section 5 National, Transnational, Global Perspectives

- 14 Modernism in the United States and Canada 257
Jutta Ernst
- 15 Postmodernism in the United States and Canada 277
Julia Breitbach
- 16 Literary Celebrity in the United States and Canada 299
Lorraine York
- 17 North American Literature and Global Studies:
Transnationalism at War 313
Georgiana Banita

- Contributors* 337
- Works Cited* 343
- Index* 393