

Contents

A Note on Texts — VII

A The Age of Criticism

- 1 Introduction — 3
- 2 Contemporary Discussions of Criticism and the Critic — 12
  - 2.1 Definitions and Evaluations: The State of Criticism — 12
  - 2.2 Imagining Criticism — 22

B The Authority of Criticism

- 1 Critical Authority — 49
- 2 Aristocratic Authority — 54
  - 2.1 Court-Wits and Gentleman Critics — 55
  - 2.2 Changes in the System of Patronage — 71
- 3 The Authority of Seniority: Ancient and Modern Criticism — 94
- 4 The Authority of Poetic Genius — 115
  - 4.1 The Poet as Critic — 117
  - 4.2 Poets and Editors — 136
- 5 Learning: Knowledge between Authority and Pedantry — 150
  - 5.1 The Pedant as Exemplary — 151
  - 5.2 Polite Learning against Erudition — 157
  - 5.3 Specialized Knowledge — 164
- 6 Rules and the Critic — 177
  - 6.1 Power Structures — 180
  - 6.2 Rules and Reason — 193

- 7 Taste and the Critic — 201
  - 7.1 Debating Taste — 203
  - 7.2 The Taste of the Audience — 213
  - 7.3 The Standard of Taste — 216

- 8 Name-Authority: The Critic as Institution — 229
  - 8.1 The Anachronistic Critic: John Dennis — 233
  - 8.2 The Institutional Critic: Samuel Johnson — 254

- 9 Authority and the Marketplace — 269
  - 9.1 Overproduction — 275
  - 9.2 “This process of chymical criticism”:
The Critic as Gate-Keeper — 285

- 10 Institutionalizing Authority: Academies and Reviews — 301
  - 10.1 Courts of Criticism I: The Academy — 301
  - 10.2 Courts of Criticism II: The Reviews — 312
  - 10.3 “The Theatre of War”: Attacks on the Reviews — 341

C Conclusion

Distance and Democracy — 359

Works Cited — 373

Index — 405