

Inhalt

Vorwort der Reihenherausgeberinnen.....	9
Vorbemerkung der Herausgeberin des Bandes	11
Einleitung der Herausgeberin.....	13
1) Eine Exilschrift und ihre Geschichte.....	13
2) Gesichtspunkte der Edition	17
3) Fritz Borinski: Homo politicus	20
4) Was das Buch bietet.....	25
5) Borinskis Text in fachgeschichtlicher Perspektive	27
6) Demokratische Regeneration nach Holocaust und Totalitarismus	39
Introduction by the Author.....	43
Chapter I
The German Volkshochschulbewegung – A Democratic and Spiritual Movement	47
1) In 1918/19	47
2) Bourgeois Society Restored	49
3) The Old and the New School	50
4) Stimuli from Abroad.....	56
5) Other Stimuli / Allied Movements	59
6) Founding Years.....	61
7) Boom and Crisis (1919 – 1923).....	64
8) Stabilization	67
9) The Character of the Volkshochschulbewegung (Folk-High-School Movement)..	69
Chapter II
The Abendvolkshochschule (Evening Folk High-School).....	73
1) Evening Classes or Bildungsanstalten ?	73
2) The Organization of the Abendvolkshochschule	74
3) The Social Background.....	76
4) The Syllabus	79
5) Social Sciences at the Abendvolkshochschule	80
6) Arts at the Abendvolkshochschule	81

7)	Consideration of Special Interests.....	82
8)	Absence of Systematic Courses	84
9)	School or Community Centre?.....	85
10)	Gemeinschaft as Living Source and as Escape	88
11)	The Realistic Trend in the Development of the Abendvolkshochschule	89

Excursus:

Academy of Labour (Akademie der Arbeit , Frankfurt a. M.).....	92
--	----

Chapter III

Residential Colleges.....	99
1) The Bauernvolkshochschulen	100
2) The Heimvolkshochschulen (Residential Colleges for Town People)	105
a) Dreißigacker	105
b) Tinz	109
c) Common Features and Problems	111
d) Three Particular Problems.....	116
3) The Volkshochschulheime (Educational Town Hostels).....	119
4) Some Achievements.....	125
5) The Camps for Young People.....	127
6) Conclusion	129

Chapter IV

Some Problems of the German Volkshochschule Movement.....	131
A The Problem of "Neutrality"	131
1) Freie Volksbildung	131
2) "Neutrality" as Educational Philosophy.....	133
3) "Neutrality" as Political Tactics	134
4) The Essen System	135
5) The School of Leipzig.....	136
6) The Hohenrodt League	138
7) A Common Purpose?	139
B The Statutory Position of German Adult Education.....	142
1) Problems Confronting Adult Educational Policy.....	142
2) Public Assistance and Interference	143
3) Finances	143
4) The Tutors.....	146
a) Status and Type.....	146
b) Tutors' Remuneration	148
c) Tutors' Training.....	148

C	Social Effects and Background of Adult Education	150
1)	The Students	150
2)	Social Effect.....	151
3)	The Volkshochschüler as a New Type of Social Functionary	152
4)	The Social Position of the Volkshochschule Movement	153
5)	Related Educational Forces.....	154
	a) The Volksbüchereien (Popular Libraries)	154
	b) The Volksbühnen (People’s Theatres).....	156
	c) Educational Films and Broadcasting.....	156
6)	The Volkshochschule and the Masses (Formal and Informal Adult Education)	157
	a) Special Education and the Volkshochschule	158
	b) Mass Education.....	159
	c) Informal Adult Education	160
D	Why did the Volkshochschule Fail? (An Attempt to Assess Achievement and Failure)	161
Chapter V
	The Fatal Slump.....	165
1)	Psychological Depression (The “Fifth Estate”)	165
2)	Vocational Retraining Courses for the Unemployed	167
3)	Voluntary Labour Service.....	167
4)	The Economic Slump.....	172
	a) The Reduced Material Basis of the Volkshochschule	172
	b) The End of Democracy as End of the Volkshochschule	173
5)	Surrender or Dissolution	176
6)	Spiritual Opposition – A Hope for the Future.....	178
Chapter VI
	Some Reflections on the Future of German Adult Education	179
1)	Adult Education in a Rebuilding Crisis	179
2)	The Place of Adult Education in a Rebuilding Democracy	180
3)	The Purpose of Adult Education in Post-Nazi Germany	181
4)	Social Forces and the Future of Adult Education in Germany.....	183
5)	The Educational Approach.....	185
6)	A New Community of Values?.....	187
7)	The Public and Autonomous Status of Democratic Adult Education	188
8)	Elitist or Mass Movement?	190
9)	Adult Education in a Working Democracy	192
10)	The Good Fight.....	196

Prosopographischer Anhang 199

Literaturverzeichnis 253

Index 265