

CONTENTS

Foreword, by Mitchell I. Ginsberg	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
1. The Foster Care Phenomenon	1
2. Criteria for Selection of Study Subjects and Their Characteristics	33
3. Procedures for Study of Foster Children	52
4. Parental Visiting of Children in Foster Care	85
5. Discharge and Other Status Outcomes	112
6. Circumstances at Time of Discharge	145
7. Mental Abilities of Foster Children	166
8. Analysis of IQ Change over Five Years	197
9. The Study Child in School	227
10. Analysis of Change in School Achievement	268
11. Clinical Assessment of the Children through Psychological Testing	287
12. Child Behavior Characteristics of Foster Children	325
13. The Child's Adaptation to Foster Care	373
14. Behavior Symptoms at End of Study	414
15. The Children and Their Social Workers Perceive Foster Care	453
16. An Overview and Look to the Future	474
Appendix	509
Index	515
Publications of the Child Welfare and Family Welfare Research Program	521