

CONTENTS

List of Figures	ix
List of Tables	xi
Introduction	xiii
Who should read this book?	xiii
Why should you read this book?	xiii
Overview of the book	xiv
About the authors	xvi
Acknowledgments	xvii
Disclaimer	xvii

Part I From Broken Investment Models to Sustainable Strategic Investing

1	Perils of the Misguided Investor: Lessons from a CFO – Part 1	3
2	Why Traditional Investment Models Don't Work	5
	The truth about returns on stocks and bonds	5
	Taxes, fees, and other costs	9
	The temptation to follow simple graphs and the catastrophic effects of power laws	10
	So is investing a bell curve game?	12
	The tremendous impact of power law events	13
	Why is the financial services industry (still) promoting stocks and bonds?	15
	Challenges facing near-term performance	16
	Conclusion: what to expect from traditional investment concepts	17

3	The Investor Back at the Core of Investing: Lessons from a CFO – Part 2	19
4	The Essence of Strategy	25
	The battle of Salamis	25
	The core elements of strategy	27
	Strategic principles: universal laws of life	30
5	The Empowered Investor: A New Paradigm of Investing	33
	A framework for strategic wealth creation	33
	Strengths: the investor at the core of investment strategy	36
	The importance of strengths	36
	Why are strengths neglected in finance literature?	39
	How to build strengths	40
	Where can strengths be built?	41
	Concentrate!	43
	Assign resources	44
	Focus on allocation of resources	45
	Be aware of risks	45
	Opportunities: sources of wealth creation	46
	Opportunities in the finance industry	46
	Pitfalls of the finance industry	48
	Types of opportunities	48
	Finding opportunities: chance or methodology?	49
	Start with your strengths	50
	Do your homework: scan the environment	50
	Apply a long-term view	50
	Pitfalls of opportunities	51
	Networks: support of wealth creation	53
	Networks in finance	53
	Why are networks so important?	55
	Guidelines for building networks	56
	The heart of the network: core competences	56
	Networks are a two-way street	57
	Strong and weak ties	58
	Building your network strategy	59
	Differentiation: the path to uniqueness and competitive advantage	60
	Successful differentiation: William's story	60
	Prerequisites for successful differentiation	63
	Building core competences for differentiation	63

Apply an indirect approach	63
Be innovative	64
Threats and risks: preventing losses	65
Continuous wealth creation without setbacks is not possible	66
How to deal with threats and risks	67
Rigorous analysis	67
Careful selection of the core competences to be built	69
Risk management by concentration of forces	69
Avoiding threats and risks	70
Use of options and derivatives	71
Build networks	71
Don't over-leverage	72
Diversification	73
Timing: limited strategic choices	74
Guidelines for successful timing: cycles	74
Apply the big picture	76
Clarify your investment horizon	76
Assure your strategic flexibility	77
Be creative and courageous	77
Be patient	78
Efficiency: a prerequisite for value creation	78
Fees can hamper wealth creation	78
Using networks effectively	80
Opportunity costs	80
Be selective	83
Three dimensions of efficiency	83
Making use of the framework of strategic investing	84
Strategic asset allocation	85

Part II How to Be a Successful Strategic Investor

6	Two Paths to Your Investment Strategy	91
	How Paul became a successful investor by crafting his strategy	91
	How Ralph designed his investment strategy with a formal process	93
	Crafting vs. designing strategy	94
7	What Should an Effective Investment Strategy Contain?	97
	The vision of the investor	97

The core competences the investor intends to build	99
The structure of the investment portfolio	99
Examples	104
Handling threats and risks	107
The networks the investor intends to build and use	107
Guidelines for cash and liquidity	109
Priorities for allocation of investor resources	109
The legal and tax structure	110
Example	110
8 Putting the Process of Strategic Investing into Practice	113
Essential considerations	113
Key questions to ask – information analysis	115
Questions on strengths	115
Questions on opportunities	116
Questions on networks	117
Questions on differentiation	118
Questions on threats and risks	118
Questions on timing	118
Questions on efficiency	119
Practical considerations	119
Developing options as a step to success	120
Creating alternative options	120
The moment of truth – evaluating options and making decisions	122
The hard work – implementing the strategy	123
Ensuring success – strategic control	125
9 Putting Everything Together	127
A final story: Henry's success	127
Applying the framework to all aspects of wealth creation	131
Final remarks on this new approach	131
Appendices	133
Notes	139
References	149