

Contents

Introduction

vii

CARLO M. CIPOLLA

1. Population in Europe 1920-1970 I
MIŁOŚ MACURA
Improvement in Demographic Knowledge -
Population Trends in Europe: An Overview - Fifty Years of National Growth - Natality and Mortality - International Migration - Urban Population Growth and Concentration -
Bibliography

2. The Structure of Demand 1920-1970 89
A. S. DEATON
Total Consumption and National Income - The Structure of Private Consumption Expenditures -
Bibliography

3. The Labour Force and Labour Problems in Europe 1920-1970 133
WALTER GALENSON
Economic Background - Labour Force - Trade
Unionism - Industrial Relations - Social and Economic Status of the Worker

4. Management 1920-1970 185
GIORGIO PELLICELLI
translated by Muriel Grindrod Economic and Social Conditions at Beginning of the 1920s - Inheritance of Weber, Taylor and Fayol - Illusions Collapse. Economic Stability.
Crisis of 1931-2. Economic and Social Stagnation - Economic and Social Conditions in the 1950s and 1960s - Portrait of the European Manager -
Bibliography

5. The Sources of Energy 1920-1970 219
GEORGES BRONDEL
translated by Susan Sharp
Growth in Demand for Energy - Solid Fuel - Liquid Fuel - Natural Gas - Electricity and Nuclear Energy - Power: The Source of Economic Development - Energy as Localisation Factor in Industrial Operations - Energy and Technological Progress - Social Problems in Energy-Producing Industries - Changes in Structure of Energy Industry - Concept of an Energy Policy - Energy and Protection of Environment - Conclusion -
Bibliography
6. The Social Relations of Science and Technology 1914-1939 301
ROY and KAY MACLEOD
Science, Technology and War - Scientists,
Government and Technological Development -
The Social Context of Science - Conclusion -
Bibliography
7. The Keynesian Revolution 1920-1970 336
ROBERT CAMPBELL
Origins of the Keynesian Revolution - The Keynesian Revolution in Economic Theory and Policy
- Notes on the Authors* 400