

Contents

	Series editors' foreword	page ix
	Acknowledgements	xi
1	Introduction	I
2	The trials of Nathan Zuckerman, or Jewry as jury: judging Jews in Zuckerman Bound	21
3	The 'credible incredible and the incredible credible': generic experimentation in My Life as a Man , The Counterlife , The Facts , Deception and Operation Shylock	46
4	Old men behaving badly: morality, mortality and masculinity in Sabbath's Theater	122
5	History and the anti-pastoral: Utopian dreams and rituals of purification in the 'American Trilogy'	148
6	Fantasies of flight and flights of fancy: rewriting history and retreating from trauma in The Plot Against America	186
	Afterword	218
	Works cited	225
	Index	237