

Contents

| | |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| Acknowledgements | ix |
| Introduction | I |
| PART I Gendered and Sexual Identities | 19 |
| LUCILLE CAIRNS | |
| Post-Feminist Pornographication or Pro-Sex Feminism? Queer Performativity in the Work of Two French Female Artists | 21 |
| DORIS LEIBETSEDER | |
| Fem(me) Tracks: Queer Fem(me)inist Strategies of Resistance in Rock and Pop Music, from Angie Reed to Denice Fredriksson | 43 |
| SANTIAGO FOUZ-HERNÁNDEZ AND ADRIÁN GRAS-VELÁZQUEZ | |
| Screening Chueca: Marking the Queer Territory in Spanish Cinema of the 2000s | 67 |
| FLORIAN GRANDENA | |
| From the Sublimated Anus to the Desublimating Hand: An Intersectional Discussion of Work and Homosexuality in French Gay Cinema | 89 |

| | | |
|---------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| PART II | National and Ethnic Identities | 113 |
| ANDY BYFORD | | |
| | Performing 'Community': Russian Speakers in Contemporary Britain | 115 |
| ALFREDO MARTÍNEZ-EXPÓSITO | | |
| | Branding the Nation: Resistance and Authenticity in García Berlanga's París-Tombuctú | 141 |
| DIEGO SANTOS SÁNCHEZ | | |
| | Performing Nationhood: Theatre and Heterodox Identities in (Multi)National Spain | 163 |
| PART III | Post-Human Identities | 187 |
| KERSTIN OLOFF | | |
| | Towards the World-Zombie: The Monstrous, the 'Human' and the Dominican-Haitian Frontier in Pedro Cabiya's Malas hierbas (2010) and Junot Díaz's 'Monstro' (2012) | 189 |
| CHRISTOPHER LLOYD | | |
| | Redrawing the Boundaries of the Human: Automata, Androids and Clones from Hoffmann to Houellebecq | 213 |
| | Notes on Contributors | 237 |
| | Index | 241 |