

CONTENTS

Illustrations	xii
Preface	xiii
1 American Religious History in the Post-Protestant Era	1
PART I: EUROPEAN PROLOGUE	15
2 Western Catholicism	18
3 The Church in New Spain	36
4 The Church in New France	54
5 The Reformation	70
6 The Reformation in Great Britain and the Age of Puritanism	84
7 Empire, Commerce, and Religion: A Survey of Early Colonization	99
PART II: THE PROTESTANT EMPIRE FOUNDED	121
8 The Rise and Flowering of the Puritan Spirit	124
9 The Holy Commonwealths of New England	135
10 Tensions in the New England Way	151
11 Religious Diversity in Rhode Island	166
12 Early Protestantism in the Southern Colonies	184
13 The Middle Colonies: Dutch, Puritans, and Quakers	200
14 The Extension of Anglicanism	214
15 The German Sects and the Rise of Pietism	230
16 The German Reformed and Lutheran Churches	245
PART III: THE CENTURY OF AWAKENING AND REVOLUTION	261
17 The Shaping of Colonial Presbyterianism	265
18 The Great Awakening in New England	280

19	Jonathan Edwards and the Renewal of New England Theology	295
20	Evangelical Expansion in the South	314
21	Roman Catholicism in the American Colonies	330
22	Provincial America and the Coming of the Enlightenment	343
23	The Revolutionary Era	360
 PART IV: THE GOLDEN DAY OF DEMOCRATIC EVANGELICALISM		 385
24	The Emergence of American Unitarianism	388
25	The New England Theology in Democratic America	403
26	The Second Great Awakening in New England: Revival, Evangelism, and Reform	415
27	The Great Revival in the West and the Growth of the Popular Denominations	429
28	Presbyterians and Congregationalists in the Old Northwest: Advance and Conflict	455
29	Sectarian Heyday	472
30	The Communitarian Impulse	491
 PART V: COUNTERVAILING RELIGION		 511
31	The Atlantic Migration and Lutheran Crisis	515
32	The Forming of the Roman Catholic Church	527
33	The Expansion of the Roman Catholic Church	540
34	Anti-Catholicism and the Nativist Movement	555
35	The Early Growth of Judaism	569
36	The Romantic Mood	583
37	Romantic Religion in New England	597
38	Catholic Movements in American Protestantism	615
 PART VI: SLAVERY AND EXPIATION		 633
39	The High Tide of Humanitarian Reform	637
40	Slavery, Disunion, and the Churches	648
41	The Churches amid Civil War and Reconstruction	670
42	The Rise of the Black Churches	698
43	The Southern White Churches after the War	715

Contents	ix
PART VII: THE ORDEALS OF TRANSITION	731
44 Urban Growth and the Protestant Churches	735
45 Protestantism and the Later Immigration	749
46 The Golden Age of Liberal Theology	763
47 The Social Gospel	785
48 Dissent and Reaction in Protestantism	805
49 The "Americanism" Crisis in the Catholic Church	825
50 The Protestant Establishment and the New Nativism	842
51 Crusading Protestantism	857
PART VIII: THE AGE OF FALTERING CRUSADES	873
52 The Little War and the Great War	877
53 The Twenties: From the Armistice to the Crash	895
54 The Thirties: From the Crash to Pearl Harbor	918
55 Neo-Orthodoxy and Social Crisis	932
56 World War II and the Postwar Revival	949
PART IX: TOWARD POST-PURITAN AMERICA	965
57 Twentieth-Century Judaism	969
58 The Ancient Eastern Churches in America	985
59 Roman Catholicism in the Twentieth Century	998
60 Harmonial Religion since the Later Nineteenth Century	1019
61 Piety for the Age of Aquarius: Theosophy, Occultism, and Non-Western Religion	1037
62 Black Religion in the Twentieth Century	1055
63 The Turbulent Sixties	1079
Bibliography	1097
Index	1129